PRESS RELEASE

The hotel franchise organization operates 300 hotels in 42 countries.

NH SELLS FRANCHISE ORGANISATION
"GOLDEN TULIP WORLDWIDE" TO ITS MANAGEMENT

- NH Hoteles will concentrate on a single brand and unified products and services
- Mr. Hans W.R. Kennedie, from The Netherlands, will stay on as Managing Director of the Hotel Franchise Company

Amsterdam, 6 February 2002. - NH Hoteles, the third leading European hotel company, has sold "Golden Tulip Worldwide", the company which manages the Golden Tulip and Tulip Inn Franchises, to a Group, led by Golden Tulip's Managing Director Hans W.R. Kennedie. This transaction implies that Golden Tulip Worldwide will no longer be an NH business unit. This deal is mainly driven by NH's decision to concentrate its activities in a single hotel brand, NH, and on a unified products and services for the entire chain.

NH Hoteles decided to change the name of Golden Tulip to NH Hoteles, among several reasons, because of the need to consolidate the brand with the largest geographical presence in the European hotel industry. The Golden Tulip Hotels and Tulip Inns owned and leased by NH Hoteles will be re-branded to the NH brand in the course of this year.

Golden Tulip Worldwide franchises to 300 hotels located in 42 countries around the world. The organization's current management team headed by Hans Kennedie will continue to manage and operate the licence business and guarantee the quality standards for all the hotels operating under the Golden Tulip and Tulip Inn brands. Mr. Kennedy has been associated with Golden Tulip in a number of different positions and has been based in the company's offices in The Netherlands, New York and London. He is the group's Managing Director since June of 2000 and has been with the Company for over 18 years.

The Golden Tulip Hotels are Superior First Class hotels in business locations and main tourism areas while the Tulip Inn are Limited First Class and Superior Tourist (3-star) establishments that also cater to business and leisure travellers. Since 1975, Golden Tulip Worldwide is a preferred Travel partner of KLM Royal Dutch Airlines. Besides KLM, Golden Tulip is a member of several frequent flyer loyalty programs, including NorthWest Airlines, American Airlines, Alitalia and Air France.

Hans Kennedy, the current Managing Director of Golden Tulip Worldwide, said that, "our decision will simplify our operations and will enhance our positioning to enable us to fully develop the Golden Tulip brand potential while avoiding the risk of confusion created by the distribution of a shared brand".

ABOUT GOLDEN TULIP WORLDWIDE

Golden Tulip Worldwide is one of the leading European franchisers of three and four star hotels in Europe. Golden Tulip Worldwide currently consists of approximately 300 hotels in 240 cities across 42 countries, with 240 hotels being located in Europe. The franchising operation markets two brands: Golden Tulip Hotels (superior first class hotels) and Tulip Inns (comfortable three-star operations). Each hotel maintains its individuality and local character. A selective recruitment of franchisees as well as a standardised quality control guarantees the same high international standard of quality and service within both brands.

PRESS RELEASE

NH HOTELS AGREES SALE&LEASE-BACK OF FOUR HOTELS TO FINANCE EXPANSION PLANS

- The sale&lease-back transaction allows NH Hotels to obtain EUR 91.4 m cash-flow to finance European expansion.
- Under the terms of the 20-year lease agreements, the hotels, with 643 rooms in total, will continue operating under the NH brand.

Madrid, 8 February 2002.- NH Hotels has sold four hotels to Pontegadea Inmobiliarias, owned by Amancio Ortega, for EUR 91.4 mn under 20-year leaseback agreements.

Following this transaction, NH Hotels obtains EUR 91.4 m that will help to finance acquisitions in Central Europe and achieve its objective of playing an active role in the sector's concentration process. The Company has been considering this move in recent months and made its final decision after analysing several offers.

Under these agreements the hotels will maintain the NH brand and management conditions unchanged for the long term, hence, clients will not notice any changes and employees will continue to be part of the chain.

The hotels sold and leased-back are: the 184-room NH Abascal "Gold Collection" in Madrid; the 4-star NH Iruña Park in Pamplona with 225 rooms; the 4-star NH Villa de Bilbao with 142 rooms; and, the 3-star NH Pirineos in Lérida with 92 rooms.

In 2001, these four hotels, located in several Spanish cities and with 643 rooms in total, posted EUR 23 Mn in sales.

This decision is in keeping with the Company's strategy aimed at optimising its hotel portfolio and achieving a balance between owned assets and those under lease or management agreement. When the agreements are formalised, the weighting of owned rooms will decrease from 49% to 47% while that of rooms under lease management will rise from 33% to 35%.
