CNCI RECEIVED CERTIFICATION FROM THE MEXICAN EVALUATION CENTER (CENEVAL)

Monterrey, March 14, 2002 — Grupo Dataflux, S.A. de C.V. (BMV: Dataflux B), a Mexican Education and Information services company, today reported that its education subsidiary CNCI, was certified by the CENEVAL, and the Board for Certification and Competency (known as CONOCER), in order to train and test students nation wide in Computer tools and applications.

These two agencies, CENEVAL and CONOCER, are entities that depend from the Mexican Ministry of Education (known as SEP) and the Mexican Ministry of Work (known as STPS).

"We are totally committed to improve the quality level of our courses, this certification is product of a substantial progress in our program and our academic staff" commented Mr. Gilberto Caballero, CEO, of the CNCI.

"This accreditation reinforces our search to provide education in new fields and levels which are subject to very high quality standards such as College and University" said Mr. Alberto Hinojosa, CEO of Grupo Dataflux.

"We are very pleased with the results of our Education Division. Grupo Dataflux strategy for the mid and long term is to concentrate in the Education field. Events like this gives us confidence about our future development" commented Mr. Guillermo Salinas-Pliego, President of Grupo Dataflux.

With the exception of historical information, the matters discussed in this press release are forward-looking statements.
