Re: Immediate report

In light of low trading level of the Company's share in the AMEX, and high costs involved in the handling of trade of the share in this market, the Company has filed, today, a request with the AMEX to delist its share from trading.

At this stage, the Company will continue to submit its immediate and periodical reports to the American Securities Authorities (SEC), until complying with the terms, upon which, the Company will cease submitting these reports.

The Company anticipates that delisting of the share from the above trading will reduce costs and administration sources attributed to this issue.

Sincerely yours,

Yair Kohavi, Adv.

Corporate Secretary
