TMM PORTS AND TERMINALS ANNOUNCES NEW CONTRACT AT MANZANILLO PORT
Container Volume to Increase Significantly

Mexico City, May 30, 2002 - Grupo TMM (NYSE: TMM and TMM/L), the largest Latin American multi-modal transportation and logistics company, and owner of the controlling interest in Grupo Transportacion Ferroviaria Mexicana, S.A. de C.V. (Grupo TFM), announced that its TMM Ports and Terminals division has signed a new contract with Mediterranean Shipping Company of Geneva, Switzerland, the third largest container shipping company in the world, for container movements in Manzanillo. TMM Ports and Terminals is owned 51% by Grupo TMM and 49% by Stevedoring Services of America. As previously announced, the division recently received approval from the Secretary of Communication and Transportation in Mexico for the expansion of the waterfront and yard in Manzanillo, providing entry into Mexico and the United States.

The new services announced will use the port of Manzanillo as an eastern Pacific hub for vessels originating in Asia that will stop at Manzanillo and move through the canal to the United States; for vessels from the United States east coast that will move through the canal and stop in Manzanillo before moving westbound to Asia; and for Latin American trade ships that will use Manzanillo as the transshipment port.

Based upon the contract signed this week for increased services and on the positive outlook of other customers, Manzanillo is projecting significantly improved volume growth for the near term, from its current 300,000 TEU's annualized increasing to 500,000 TEU's over the next 18 months.

Javier Segovia, Grupo TMM's president, said, "The expansion at Manzanillo is part of a focused program that TMM Ports and Terminals instituted two years ago to grow its terminal business. We are seeing the results of our initiatives to focus on selected, core transportation offerings and have been pleased with the results this division has contributed" Jon Hemingway, Stevedoring Services of America's CEO and president commented, "We are pleased to see Mediterranean Shipping, an important customer and also our partner in the Port of Long Beach at Pier S, give all of us at TMM Ports and Terminals the opportunity to provide global service to its Mexican customers."
