TELMEX AND FORSTMANN LITTLE'S POSITION REGARDING THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT OF XO COMMUNICATIONS, INC

Mexico City, June 7, 2002. Teléfonos de México, S.A. de C.V. (BMV;TELMEX, NYSE; TMX, NASDAQ; TFONY, LATIBEX; XTMXL) and Forstmann Little & Co. (collectively the "Investors") said today that they believe that it is virtually impossible that the commitments to their obligations included in the Purchase Agreement of XO Communications, Inc. (the Company) will ever be satisfied. The Investors' made the decision based on a number of factors, mainly because of the absence, despite months of negotiations of any agreement among the Company's stakeholders.

In the letter sent to the company, it is was established that the Investors will maintain the commitment to fulfill their obligations under the Purchase agreement, it is important for the Company and all of its stakeholders to understand that that Investors will not waive any of the conditions to their obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement. In addition, The Investors will not undertake any further actions in connection with the Company's ongoing restructuring efforts (including engaging in any discussions or negotiations with respect to alternative transactions) that are not required by the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

In light of the foregoing, the Investors request that the Company mutually agree with the Investors to terminate the Purchase agreement to clarify for all of the Company's stakeholders the restructuring options actually available to the Company. If the Company declines to do so, the Investors reserve all of the rights to terminate the Purchase Agreement.
