On June 6, 2002, Koninklijke Ahold N.V. (the "Company") held a conference call in connection with the announcement of its earnings for the first quarter of 2002. During the conference call various officers of the Company discussed the Company's quarterly results and answered questions. Some of the information provided during the conference call is as follows:

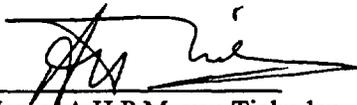

- The Company is on track to meet its targeted working capital improvement for fiscal year 2002 of Euro 400 million and that the Company has already achieved Euro 300 million of that target. The improvements in working capital are a result of improvements in inventory line, trade accounts receivable, non-trade accounts payable, non-trade accounts receivable and cash on hand.
- Identical retail sales, which provide a comparison from exactly the same stores, for Bruno's in the first quarter of 2002 compared to the same period in the prior year were above the Company's average identical retail sales.
- The Company expects full year interest expense for fiscal year 2002 to be in the high Euro 900 millions.
- The integration of Alliant Foodservice into US Foodservice, originally scheduled to take two years, was likely to be completed in one year and that 14 of 17 planned closings and consolidations were already completed.
