Telkom's Interim Financial Results and Credit Ratings

Bandung, June 13, 2002 – PT Telekomunikasi Indonesia, Tbk. ("PT Telkom") would like to inform its recent developments as follows:

1. Financial results.

PT Telkom's unaudited consolidated financial results for the five months ended May 31, 2002 was as follows:

	2002
	(In Millions of Rupiah)
Operating revenues	7,203,789
Operating income	4,162,402
Net income (after tax)	2,734,810

PT Telkom's net income includes proportion of Telkomsel's of Rp 830.162 million and other subsidiaries of Rp 104.280 million.

Telkom consolidates its subsidiaries of PT Telekomunikasi Seluler ("Telkomsel"), PT Dayamitra Telekomunikasi ("Dayamitra"), PT Infomedia Nusantara ("Infomedia"), PT Indonusa Telemedia ("Indonusa"), and PT Graha Sarana Duta ("GSD").

2. S&P Assigns 'B+' (Stable Outlook) Rating to PT Telkom.

On June 13, 2002 Standard & Poor's assigned its single 'B'-plus corporate credit rating to PT Telkom. Supporting the rating is Telkom's strong market position, comprehensive network, steady operations and earnings, strong financial position, and partial insulation from sovereign risk. The rating, however, reflects the country's high economic and political uncertainties, volatile local currency, increasing competition in the industry, regulatory uncertainties, and uncertainties over PT Telkom's joint operating schemes (KSO).

3. Moody's Assigns 'B2' Local Currency Issuer Rating and 'B3' Foreign Currency Issuer Rating to PT Telkom.

On June 13, 2002 Moody's Investor Service assigned B2 local currency issuer and B3 foreign currency issuer ratings to PT Telkom. The outlook for both ratings is positive, reflecting PT Telkom's link with the ratings of the Government of Indonesia (B3 for both local and foreign currency, positive outlook) and its strong profile.
