Report of Independent Auditors

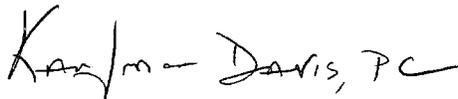

To the Pension and Retirement Committee
The Fairchild Corporation
Dulles, Virginia

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of the Savings Plan for Employees of The Fairchild Corporation (the Plan) as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule listed in the Table of Contents is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Such schedule has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic 2001 financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects when considered in relation to the basic 2001 financial statements taken as a whole.

SAVINGS PLAN FOR EMPLOYEES OF

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001 and 2000

Note 1. Description of Plan; Merger of Other Plans

The following summary of the Savings Plan for Employees of The Fairchild Corporation (the Plan), formerly the Fairchild Savings and Employee Stock Ownership Plan (SESOP), which was formerly the Fairchild Industries, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP), is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the legal Plan Document for more complete information. The Plan is subject to provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

General - The plan was originally adopted, effective January 1951, by the Board of Directors and shareholders of Fairchild Industries, Inc. (Company), a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Fairchild Corporation (Corporation), formerly Banner Industries, Inc. The term Plan Sponsor as used herein refers to either the Company or the Corporation.

Effective January 1, 1986, the Plan was amended and restated into an employee stock ownership plan as described in Section 4975(E)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code), coverage was expanded to include all nonbargaining unit employees and the Plan was renamed The Fairchild Industries, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP).

Effective February 1, 1989, The Savings Plan for Employees of Fairchild Industries, Inc. (Savings Plan) was merged into the ESOP to form the SESOP.

On December 18, 1990, the Corporation adopted a restated document entitled the Savings Plan for Employees of The Fairchild Corporation. The Plan as restated was essentially a continuation of the Savings Plan.

As a result of Company acquisitions in 1999, the Plan was amended and restated, effective December 31, 1999, to reflect the merger of the Kaynar Technologies, Inc. Savings and Retirement Plan, the Amended and Restated Banner Aerospace, Inc. Profit Sharing/401(k) Plan and Trust and the Marcliff Savings Plan. As of December 31, 1999 employees ceased participation in the three merged plans and began participation in The Fairchild Plan. Assets from the three plans totaling $56,820,193 were transferred into the Savings Plan for Employees of The Fairchild Corporation on February 1, 2000. Accordingly, the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2000 contains the financial information of the three merged plans for eleven months and twelve months of financial information for The Fairchild Plan.

The purpose of the Plan is to provide a vehicle for the eligible employees of the Corporation and its United States subsidiaries that have adopted the Plan (individually, the Corporation or any United States subsidiary that has adopted the Plan is referred to as a "Plan Sponsor") to save funds on a tax-advantaged basis and receive a proprietary interest in the Corporation and to assist the Plan Sponsor in attracting and retaining competent employees.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1. Description of Plan; Merger of Other Plans (continued)

Subject to meeting the requirements for participation set forth in the Plan and described below, each eligible employee of the Corporation or any United States subsidiary of the Corporation that has adopted the Plan is entitled to participate in the Plan.

The Plan consists of two components: (1) a savings feature, that allows participants to contribute a portion of their annual compensation to the Plan through payroll deductions and to receive Plan Sponsor matching contributions on those contributions (Matching Contributions) and (2) a profit sharing feature that allows the Plan Sponsor to make contributions at the discretion of its board of directors to the accounts of eligible participants.

Participants may make their contributions on a before-tax basis in accordance with a qualified cash or deferred arrangement permitted under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code or can elect to have their contributions made under the after-tax contribution provisions of the Plan.

For the plan years ending December 31, 2001 and 2000, matching contributions were made by the Plan Sponsor on behalf of each participant of the Plan in an amount equal to 50% of the sum of the participant's before-tax and after-tax contributions, up to 5% of the participant's annual compensation. Effective January 1, 2002 Plan Sponsor matching contributions will be discretionary and determined annually by the Board of Directors.

Each full-time employee of the Plan Sponsor who is not a leased employee is generally eligible to participate in the Plan.

Contributions may be made in the form of Corporation stock, cash, or other property, provided that cash will be contributed as needed to provide the Plan with sufficient funds to pay in full when due any interest and principal payments required under any and all loans (or other extensions of credit) made to the Plan and used by the Trustee to finance the acquisition of common stock issued by the Plan Sponsor.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting - The financial statements of the Plan reflect the accrual basis of accounting. The following accounting policies were followed in determining the value of the net assets available for Plan benefits:

1. Investments are stated at fair value.
2. Distributions to participants are recorded when paid.

All contributions are funded on a current basis, which is monthly for both participant contributions and matching contributions.

The Plan provides that all usual and reasonable administrative expenses of the Plan related to Trustee fees, record-keeping fees and investment management fees are to be paid out of the Plan assets.

Participant Accounts - Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of (a) the Company's contribution and (b) Plan earnings, and charged with an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. Forfeited balances of terminated participants' nonvested accounts are used to reduce future Company contributions or pay Plan expenses. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Benefits Payable - As of December 31, 2001 and 2000, benefits of $413,801 and $26,660, respectively, were due to participants who had withdrawn from participation in the Plan.

Administration - The Plan is administered by a committee known as the Pension and Retirement Committee (the Committee) appointed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The duties of the Committee include but are not limited to interpreting the Plan, issuing directions to the Trustee to pay benefits from the Plan and appointing and employing agents to assist in the administration of the Plan. As of February 1, 2000 Putnam Fiduciary Trust Company succeeded Mellon Bank as Trustee of the Plan.

Investments - Investments are stated at fair value. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade date basis. Gains or losses on sales of securities are based on the average cost of the respective securities. Dividends are recognized on the ex-dividend date. Income from other investments is recorded as earned on an accrual basis.

Investments in marketable equity securities and debt securities traded on a national securities exchange are valued by the Trustee generally at the last reported sales or bid price of the year. Interest in the bank's pooled temporary investment fund is valued at the redemption price established by the Trustee based on the market value of the securities in the funds. Guaranteed income contracts with insurance companies are valued at contract value, which consists of contributions made pursuant to the contract plus net interest earned at the contract rate. Loans to participants are stated at cost, which approximates fair value.

By Fund Information - The Plan has adopted SOP 99-3, Accounting and Reporting of Certain Contribution Plan Investments and Other Disclosure Matters, which changes the required disclosures for plans with participant-directed investment programs.

Investment Funds - Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Plan, participants may choose to have their contributions together with their Matching Contributions invested in one or more of the following investment options, as indicated by respective prospectus. Employees may invest in the funds in increments of 1%.

Any cash dividends received will be reinvested in the fund. Purchases on the open market are made monthly and may be spread over a period of days in order to avoid artificially inflating the price. The broker-dealers through which and by whom such transactions are effected are selected at the discretion of the Trustee or the investment manager, as applicable, subject, however, to the requirement that such broker-dealers offer the best services in light of their experience, skill, and financial responsibility and are paid no more than prevailing and competitive market rates.

In the event of disability or retirement under the provision of a pension plan sponsored by the Corporation, or death, matching contributions are 100% vested. The balance of a participant's before-tax and after-tax contributions are fully vested and nonforfeitable at all times.

Distributions – For plan years ending December 31, 2001 and 2000, benefits under the plan were distributed either in a lump sum, installment distribution, or annuity. Effective January 1, 2002, benefits will be distributed only in lump sum payments. The value of the matching contributions is fully vested upon the earlier of disability, death, attainment of age 65, or five years of service. If, prior to attaining full vesting, a participant terminates employment, the nonvested value of company matching contributions is forfeited. Forfeitures are used to reduce current matching contributions or pay plan expenses. Forfeitures were $70,880 and $139,430 in 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Note 3. Investments

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001 and 2000

Note 4. Tax Status

On February 28, 2002, the Corporation submitted an Application for Determination for Employee Benefit Plan to the Internal Revenue Service. The Plan has been amended to comply with various regulations and rulings issued by government agencies including the Small Business Job Protection Act, the Taxpayer Relief Act and the Community Renewal Tax Relief Act of 2000 to ensure that the Plan document complies with current administrative practice and make certain changes to plan benefits. While the Plan has not received a response as of the date of the auditor's report, the Plan administrator believes that the amended plan is designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements. The Plan obtained its latest determination letter on August 22, 1997, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Plan, as designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 5. Plan Termination

Although the Corporation has not expressed any intent to discontinue its contributions, it is free to do so at any time. In the event that such discontinuance results in the effective termination of the Plan, the Plan provides that all participants become 100% vested, and the Plan will continue in effect for the sole purpose of liquidating the participants' interest in the Plan.

Note 6. Insurance Company Contract

Effective January 1, 1995, the Plan adopted the provisions of Statement of Position 94-4, A Reporting of Investment Contracts Held by Health and Welfare Benefit Plans and Defined-Contribution Pension Plans. The Plan's guaranteed investment contract with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company is fully benefit responsive and, therefore, had been presented in the financial statements at contract value. Management of the Plan believes that contract value approximates fair value for the guaranteed investment contract. Under the contract, which is a group annuity contract, crediting interest rates are established on a calendar year basis. Crediting interest and average yield rates applicable to the contract for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 were 4.97%.
