E.ON Supervisory Board approves sale of Stinnes stake to Deutsche Bahn

The Supervisory Board of Düsseldorf-based E.ON AG has approved the sale of E.ON's Stinnes shareholding to Deutsche Bahn AG (DB). The two companies signed an agreement on the transaction.

The agreement calls for DB to make all Stinnes shareholders a cash tender offer of €32.75 per share and for E.ON to transfer ownership of its entire Stinnes stake to DB for approximately €1.6 billion. E.ON will record a book gain of about €600 million on the transaction.

Press Release

July 4, 2002

Wulf Bernotat slated to become E.ON AG CEO in May 2003

At a meeting yesterday of the Supervisory Board of Düsseldorf-based E.ON AG, the Board's executive committee recommended that the Supervisory Board appoint Dr. Wulf Bernotat (53) as Chairman of E.ON AG's Board of Management effective May 1, 2003. The Supervisory Board will decide on the matter at its next scheduled meeting on September 3, 2002. The terms of E.ON AG's two current Chairmen of the Board of Management, Ulrich Hartmann (63) and Prof. Wilhelm Simson (63), expire following the company's Annual Shareholders Meeting on April 30, 2003.

Bernotat has served as Chairman of the Board of Management of Stinnes AG since 1998. He joined the Veba Group in 1996 when he became a member of the Board of Management of Veba Oel AG. Prior to taking this position, he spent 20 years at Shell in a number of management roles, including postings in France, Portugal, and the U.K. Working out of London, he for many years oversaw Shell's operations in Eastern Europe and Africa.
