Press Release

E.ON to use all legal channels in Ministerial Approval case

E.ON AG (Düsseldorf) notes with regret the decision taken today by the Düsseldorf OLG Court. This decision stops the company's acquisition of the majority stake in Essen based Ruhrgas AG for the time being.

E.ON maintains that the reasons given by the court do not justify this decision and that the Federal Economics Ministry did, in fact, carry out the procedure in the correct manner.

The ministerial approval is and continues to be necessary to maintain the ability of Ruhrgas to compete internationally and for securing gas supplies in Germany. The decision of the court is based purely on technicalities. It prevents restructuring, which is in the long term interests of the energy, chemical and coal industries in the economically important state of North Rhine Westphalia. E.ON will now pursue all the legal channels available to support its position.
