ENDESA ENTERS THE DOW JONES SUSTAINABILITY WORLD INDEX (DJSI WORLD) AND REMAINS IN THE EUROPEAN DOW JONES STOXX SUSTAINABILITY INDEX (DJSI STOXX)

New York, September 5th, 2002.- After the recent annual review of the Dow Jones sustainability indexes, ENDESA (NYSE:ELE) has been selected to join the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index (DJSI World), and has maintained its presence in the Dow Jones STOXX Sustainability Index (DJSI STOXX).

This world index includes approximately 300 companies that are leaders in their industries from 23 countries, which have been signalled as being sustainability-driven.

Last year ENDESA joined the European DJSI STOXX, created by SAM (Sustainability Asset Management) and Dow Jones, which includes 180 companies from 14 countries that are part of the Dow Jones STOXX 600 index and have implemented the sustainability principles.

These indexes are highly regarded, as they are an independent appraisal of the companies' management in the three pillars of the sustainable development: financial, environmental and social. It has to be taken into account that the components of the DJSI World are a selection of only 10% of the 2,500 companies included in the Dow Jones Global Index that are featured by their leading roles in incorporating social, environmental and financial issues into their corporate policies.
