TWO NEW CNCI LOCATIONS RECEIVED OFFICIAL CERTIFICATION

Monterrey, Mexico, September 9, 2002 — Grupo Dataflux, S.A. de C.V. (BMV: Dataflux B, ADR I: GDFXY), a Mexican Education and Information services company, today announced that two out of its new 9 "Colegio Nacional de Capacitacion Intensiva" college locations received Official Certification from the Mexican Ministry of Education (SEP). CNCI awaits for the certification for the rest of its 7 locations.

With these, the CNCI reaches 12 college locations. CNCI's masterplan aims at 33 locations for 2003, and 107 locations for 2007. It also aims at 9,000 students for the 2003-2004 academic year and more than 26,000 for 2007.

"We are very pleased with the progress of our college programs. This event strengthens our formal education courses," said Mr. Gilberto Caballero, CNCI's CEO.

CNCI COLLEGE PROGRAMS REGISTERED MORE THEN 1,000 STUDENTS

Monterrey, Mexico, September 23, 2002 — Grupo Dataflux, S.A. de C.V. (BMV: Dataflux B, ADR I: GDFXY), a Mexican Education and Information services company, today announced that its college programs at the "Colegio Nacional de Capacitacion Intensiva" (CNCI) enrolled more than 1,000 students in this scholar term.

According to Mr. Gilberto Caballero, CNCI's CEO, its college programs are performing above their projections. "We are really pleased with the acceptance of our programs. We have received more students than we expected; more than 1,000 students enrolled in our winter college term. We are well on our way to reach our target of 2,600 students for 2003 and 6,500 for 2004".

CNCI principals have previously reported that they aim to enroll more than 26,000 students by year 2007. In order to reach this goal, CNCI will open a new location each month for the coming 24 months.

In addition they commented that they will open its first University on January 2003.
