EMI RE-SIGNS ROBBIE WILLIAMS

EMI Group plc is pleased to announce that EMI Recorded Music has re-signed Robbie Williams to a long-term, world-wide recording contract. In addition to this global record deal, EMI will benefit from some of Robbie Williams' non-recording activities, including touring, publishing and merchandising.

Alain Levy, Chairman and CEO of EMI Recorded Music, said: "Robbie Williams is an extremely talented and versatile artist with a wonderful catalogue of albums. We are delighted to have signed a new deal on terms which are good for both parties and to be working with him for many years to come."

Robbie Williams' fifth solo album, Escapology, will be released on 18th November. He has sold nearly 20 million albums worldwide with EMI during his solo career.
