FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Announcement Regarding Sale of Fixed Assets

Tokyo/New York, September 13, 2002 – Crayfish Co., Ltd. (NASDAQ: CRFH; MOTHERS: 4747) (“Crayfish” or “the Company”), a provider of e-mail and web-hosting and other Internet-related services to small and medium-sized businesses in Japan, announced today the sale of a significant portion of the equipment used to operate the Company’s DESKWING service.

As part of management’s ongoing measures aimed at strengthening the Company’s business model by streamlining its operations and outsourcing of hosting services to Global Media Online Inc., management has decided to sell to Global Media Online Inc. certain servers and other technical equipment used to operate its DESKWING service. On August 1, 2002 the Company announced that GMO would host its DESKWING service.

The asset sale will be reflected in the Company’s financial statements as a JPY93 million decrease in property and equipment, which was JPY214 million as of June 30, 2002, and a corresponding JPY109 million increase in cash.

All figures are unaudited and prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP).

This release contains forward-looking statements based upon the Company's current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about the Company's business and industry in light of the information currently available to it. To the extent that statements in this release do not relate strictly to historical or current facts, they may constitute forward-looking statements. These statements discuss future expectations, identify strategies, discuss market trends, contain projections of results of operations or of our financial condition, or state other forward-looking information. The Company's actual actions or results may differ materially from those discussed in any forward-looking statement as a result of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Important risks and factors that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from its expectations are generally discussed in the Company's annual report on its most recent form 20-F and other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and include, without limitation: that the Company may be unable to retain existing customers and expand the size of its customer base, that it may be unable to develop an effective marketing channel, that it may be unable to offer certain products and services as planned, and the outcome of securities class action litigation against the Company.

The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement after the date of this release, but investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by the Company in its subsequent filings pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
