When To File: A notice must be filed no later than 15 days after the first sale of securities in the offering. A notice is deemed filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on the earlier of the date it is received by the SEC at the address given below or, if received at that address after the date on which it is due, on the date it was mailed by United States registered or certified mail to that address.

Where to File: U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549.

Copies Required: Five (5) copies of this notice must be filed with the SEC, one of which must be manually signed. Any copies not manually signed must be photocopies of the manually signed copy or bear typed or printed signatures.

Information Required: A new filing must contain all information requested. Amendments need only report the name of the issuer and offering, any changes thereto, the information requested in Part C, and any material changes from the information previously supplied in Parts A and B. Part E and the Appendix need not be filed with the SEC.

Filing Fee: There is no federal filing fee.

State:

This notice shall be used to indicate reliance on the Uniform Limited Offering Exemption (ULOE) for sales of securities in those states that have adopted ULOE and that have adopted this form. Issuers relying on the ULOE must file a separate notice with the Securities Administrator in each state where sales are to be, or have been made. If a state requires the payment of a fee as a precondition to the claim for the exemption, a fee in the proper amount shall accompany this form. This notice shall be filed in the appropriate states in accordance with state law. The Appendix to the notice constitutes a part of this notice and must be completed.

ATTENTION

Failure to file notice in the appropriate states will not result in a loss of the federal exemption. Conversely failure to file the appropriate federal notice will not result in a loss of an available state exemption unless such exemption is predicated on the filing of a federal notice.

Potential persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number

EXHIBIT A

As compensation for its services to the Company, the Managing Member shall receive an annual performance allocation (the "Performance Allocation") at the close of each fiscal year equal to 5% of the portion of the Company's annual net income (including realized and unrealized gains and net of the Management Fee) attributable to each Member of each Series as of the close of such year, subject to the Loss Carryforward or high water mark provision discussed below. The Performance Allocation shall not include any change in the value of a security position held in a Side Pocket Account until such security is reallocated to the capital accounts of participating Members.

The Managing Member shall also receive a Performance Allocation upon any withdrawal of capital by a Member, whether voluntary or involuntary, and upon dissolution of the Company. The Performance Allocation shall be in addition to the proportionate allocations of income and profits, or losses, to the Managing Member and/or its principals and affiliates based upon their capital accounts relative to the capital accounts of all Members. The Managing Member may waive or reduce the Performance Allocation with respect to any Member for any period of time, or agree to apply a different Performance Allocation for that Member. The Managing Member may, in its discretion, reallocate a portion of its Performance Allocation to certain other Members.

The Managing Member's Performance Allocation is subject to what is commonly known as a "high water mark" procedure. That is, if the Company has a net loss in any year, this loss will be carried forward as to each Member to future years (such amount is referred to as the "Loss Carryforward"). Whenever there is a Loss Carryforward for a Member with respect to a year, the Managing Member will not receive a Performance Allocation from such Member for future years until the Loss Carryforward amount for such Member has been recovered (i.e., when the Loss Carryforward amount has been exceeded by the cumulative profits allocable to such Member for the years following the Loss Carryforward). Once the Loss Carryforward has been recovered, the Managing Member's Performance Allocation shall be based on the excess profits (over the Loss Carryforward amount) as to each Member, rather than on all profits. The "high water mark" procedure prevents the Managing Member from receiving a Performance Allocation as to profits that simply restore previous losses and is intended to ensure that each Performance Allocation is based on the long-term performance of an investment in the Company.

When a Member withdraws capital, any Loss Carryforward will be adjusted downward in proportion to the withdrawal. The Managing Member may agree with any Member to apply a different Loss Carryforward provision for such Member.

In consideration for the provision of certain administrative services, the Management Company shall receive a management fee ("Management Fee") equal to 0.0833% per month (approximately 1.0% annually) of each Member's share of the Company's Net Worth attributable to each Series. The Management Fee shall be payable monthly and in arrears, calculated as of the last day of each month. A pro rata Management Fee will be charged to Members on any amounts permitted to be invested during any month. The Management Company, in its sole discretion, may waive or reduce the Management Fee with respect to one or more Members for any period of time, or agree to apply a different Management Fee for that Member.

The Company shall pay or reimburse the Managing Member, the Management Company and/or the Administrator for all expenses related to organizing the Company, including but not limited to, legal and accounting fees, printing and mailing expenses and government filing fees (including blue sky filing fees). The Company intends to amortize organizational expenses over a period of sixty (60) months from the date the Company commences operations because it believes such treatment is more equitable than expensing the entire amount of the Company's organizational expenses in the Company's first year of operation, as required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The Company shall pay or reimburse the Managing Member, the Management Company and/or the Administrator for (A) all expenses incurred in connection with the ongoing offer and sale of Interests, including but not limited to marketing expenses, printing of the Memorandum and exhibits, documentation of performance and the admission of Members; (B) all operating and administrative expenses of the Company such as tax preparation fees, governmental fees and taxes, administrator fees, insurance, communications with Members, and ongoing legal, custodial, accounting, auditing, bookkeeping, consulting and other professional fees and expenses, and all expenses incurred in connection with researching, selecting and monitoring investment managers; (C) all Company trading and investment related costs and expenses (e.g. brokerage commissions, margin interest, expenses related to short sales, custodial fees and clearing and settlement charges); and (D) fees to protect or preserve any investment held by the Company, as determined in good faith by the Managing Member, and fees and other expenses incurred in connection with the investigation, prosecution or defense of any claims by or against the Company. The Managing Member, the Management Company and/or the Administrator, in their sole discretion, may from time to time pay for any of the foregoing Company organizational or operating expenses or waive their right to reimbursement for any such expenses, as well as terminate any such voluntary payment or waiver of reimbursement.

The Managing Member and the Management Company will pay their own general operating, administrative and overhead type expenses which are part of their day-to-day administration of the Company.
