Supplemental Report on Material Inadequacies

In the course of the independent public accountant's tests of the accounting system and the internal control procedures, no matters were considered to be material weaknesses. The period covered was the year ended December 31, 2002.

Statement of Exemption from Computation of Reserve Requirements

Franklin Capital, Inc. claims exemption from SEC rule 15c3-3 which requires a computation of reserve requirements. Franklin Capital, Inc. is a non-clearing broker-dealer and does not carry customer's accounts on its books. In the audit conducted for Franklin Capital, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2002, dated February 12, 2003 no customer accounts appeared on the books of Franklin Capital, Inc. The proper controls and procedures are in place to qualify for this exemption.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDER'S OF
FRANKLIN CAPITAL, INC.

In my opinion, the accompanying Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2002 and the related Statements of Income, Retained Earnings, and Cash Flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Franklin Capital, Inc. at December 31, 2002 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management, my responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit of these financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards which require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for the opinion expressed above.
