INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Johnson Capital, LLC
Richmond, VA

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Johnson Capital, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2002 that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Johnson Capital, LLC as of December 31, 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

JOHNSON CAPITAL, LLC

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business: Johnson Capital, LLC (the Company) is an introducing dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Company introduces investors to various hedge funds and receives fees based on the performance of the fund and amount invested. Commissions are paid quarterly and revenue is recorded in the quarter it is earned. The Company is a Virginia Limited Liability Company that is located in Richmond, Virginia.

The Company is exempt from the customer reserve requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 under Section (k)(2)(ii).

The Company's significant accounting policies are as follows:

Income taxes: The Company is a limited liability company. In lieu of corporate income taxes, the Company's taxable income is included in the member's individual tax return. Therefore, no liability for federal or state taxes has been included in this financial statement.

Depreciation: Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives of five to forty years.

Cash equivalents: For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as money market investments.

Use of estimates: The presentation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of credit risk: The Company maintains its cash deposits in an uninsured money market account.

Note 2. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2002, the Company had a net capital and required net capital of $40,680 and $5,411, respectively. The Company's net capital ratio was 2.00 to 1.

Note 3. Investments

The fair market value of the equity security classified as available for sale in the statement of financial position at December 31, 2002 was $146,343. The unrealized gain included in the statement of changes in member's equity as a component of comprehensive income was $19,334 at December 31, 2002.

JOHNSON CAPITAL, LLC

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

Note 4. Lease

The Company leases a vehicle under a noncancellable operating lease that expires in 2003. The future minimum lease payments under the lease at December 31, 2002 are $11,004.

Note 5. Pension Plan

The Company has a money purchase pension plan for employees who have met certain service requirements. The Company must contribute an amount equal to 21% of participants' compensation to the plan each year. The Company's funding policy is to make contributions as accrued.

Note 6. Related Party

The Company distributed $144,090 to a related party. The sole member in Johnson Capital, LLC is also a member in the related party.

Note 7. Major Customers

The Company has five customers each being greater than 10% of revenues.
