AMERICAN MARINE SECURITIES, INC.

FORM X-17A-5 FOCUS REPORT PART IIA

DECEMBER 31, 2002

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
American Marine Securities, Inc.

We have audited the Form X-17A-5 Focus Report Part IIA of American Marine Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2002, and the related statement of cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the accompanying Form X-17A-5 Focus Report Part IIA and the related statement of cash flows referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of American Marine Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note 1 - The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Marine Advisors, Inc. (Parent Company). It is a broker/dealer which services both retail and institutional accounts. It clears its transactions through Bear Stearns Securities Corp. on a fully disclosed basis. The Company had no operating revenues in 2002.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2 - For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Note 3 - The Company currently shares rental premises with its parent company. Rent expense, including utilities, aggregated $37,611 for 2002. In addition, the Company is charged for use of office facilities and allocated payroll costs. Such amounts aggregated $75,000 and $200,004 respectively.

Note 4 - The Company's operations are included in a consolidated income tax return filed with its parent company. The amount due from the parent company represents the estimated income tax benefits arising from such consolidation.

Note 5 - From time to time the Company maintains bank balances which are in excess of FDIC insurance limits.
