INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of Shoreline Trading Group LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Shoreline Trading Group LLC as of December 31, 2002, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Company's management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Shoreline Trading Group LLC as of December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. Nature of operations and summary of significant accounting policies

Nature of Operations

Shoreline Trading Group LLC (the Company) is organized under the laws of the state of Delaware pursuant to the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. The Company is a registered broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Company clears its securities transactions on a fully disclosed basis with two clearing brokers and, accordingly, is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission under paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of the Rule.

The Company was formed in August 1996 and its Managing Members are Kurtis W. Kupiec and Kraig A. Kupiec. The Company has offices in Los Angeles and New York. The term of the Company will continue until dissolved and terminated in accordance with the Company's operating agreement (the Agreement).

Valuation of Investments in Securities Owned and Securities Sold, Not Yet Purchased

The Company values investments in securities owned and securities sold, not yet purchased that are listed on a national securities exchange or reported on the NASDAQ national market at their last sales price as of the last business day of the year. Other securities traded in the over-the-counter markets are valued at their last reported "bid" price if held long, and last reported "asked" price if sold short.

Investment Transactions and Related Investment Income

Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade-date basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest is recognized on the accrual basis. Realized gains and losses from securities transactions are reported on a first-in, first-out basis.

Income Taxes

The Company is not subject to federal or state income taxes and, accordingly, no provision for taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. The members are required to report their proportional share of gains, losses, credits or deductions on their respective tax returns.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment, consisting of computers and office furniture, are recorded at cost and are depreciated over their estimated useful lives, ranging from 3 to 5 years, using the straight-line method. Depreciation expense was $26,823 for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts disclosed in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Company also leases offices in New York on a month-to-month basis. Total Company rent expense was $137,925 for the year ended December 31, 2002.

SHORELINE TRADING GROUP LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

4. Members' equity

The Company has four classes of members: A, B, C and D. Class A members are the Company's Managing Members. Class A and B members have voting rights and share in net profits and losses of the Company as indicated in the Agreement. Class C members do not have voting rights and are allocated net profits and losses in accordance with the Agreement. Class D members are the Company's trading members, do not have voting rights, and retain net trading profits and losses in their respective trading accounts after certain re-allocations, subject to high watermark calculations, to other Company members, in accordance with the Agreement. Under the Agreement, members may voluntarily withdraw capital and receive distributions, or the Managing Members may require the allocation of a distribution to a member based on various time, notification, and performance criteria.

For the year ended December 31, 2002, net income, trading profits and losses, and member contributions and distributions were as follows, per member class:

	Class A	Class B	Class C	Class D	Total

5. Off-balance-sheet risk

Pursuant to clearance agreements, the Company introduces all of its securities transactions to clearing brokers on a fully disclosed basis. All of the customers' money balances and long and short security positions are carried on the books of the clearing brokers. In accordance with the clearance agreements, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing brokers for losses, if any, which the clearing brokers may sustain from carrying securities transactions introduced by the Company. In accordance with industry practice and regulatory requirements, the Company and the clearing brokers monitor collateral on the customers' accounts.

In addition, the receivables from the clearing brokers are pursuant to these clearance agreements.

6. Net capital requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, under the alternative standard, of two percent of combined aggregate debits or a minimum of $250,000. At December 31, 2002, the Company had net capital of $1,803,519 which was $1,553,519 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $250,000.

There are no material differences between the computation of net capital and the computation of net capital in the Company's unaudited Form X-17A-5, Part II-A filing as of December 31, 2002.
