INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Member of
Starlight Investments, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Starlight Investments, LLC as of December 31, 2002, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Starlight Investments, LLC as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

Note 1 - General Information and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Starlight Investments, LLC (the "Company") was formed on November 30, 1999 as a Texas Limited Liability Company and its member has personal limited liability for the obligations or debts of the entity. The Company became registered as a fully disclosed broker-dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all short-term highly liquid investments which are readily convertible into cash and which have maturities as of the date of purchase of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income taxes

The Company is not recognized as a taxable entity for Federal income tax purposes and, thus, no income tax expense has been recorded in the financial statements. Taxable income of the Company is reported on the member's individual tax return.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2 - Related Party Transactions

On October 30, 2000, the Company entered into a management agreement with an affiliate. From January 1, 2001 until the agreement is terminated, the fee is 90% of the Company's monthly adjusted net operating income, as defined. During the year ended December 31, 2002, the management fee was waived indefinitely and can not be recouped in future periods.

Note 3 - Net Capital Requirements

In accordance with Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), the Company's aggregate indebtedness, as defined, shall not exceed 15 times its net capital. The Company must also maintain minimum net capital, subject to the requirements of a fully disclosed broker-dealer. The Company's net capital, as defined, of $6,577 exceeded the required minimum by $1,577 as of December 31, 2002, and its ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0 to 1.0.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

Note 4 - Subordinated Liabilities

There were no liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors at any time during the year.

Note 5 - Omission of Certain Reports

A computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to rule 15c3-3 as specified by rule 17a-5(d)(3) and information relating to possession or control of securities as specified by rule 15c3-3 and rule 17a-5(d)(3) were both omitted and not required inasmuch as the Company operates pursuant to the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i). The Company does not hold customer funds or securities.

The Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") supplemental report specified by rule 17a-5(e)(4) is omitted since the SIPC has suspended assessments based on net operating revenue.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED BY
RULE 17a-5
OF SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED
By RULE 17A-5 of the SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

To the Member of
Starlight Investments, LLC

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplementary schedule of Starlight Investments, LLC (the "Company"), for the year ended December 31, 2002, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11), and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of the design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the member, management, and the SEC, the New York Stock Exchange, and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
