INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To The Board of Directors and Stockholders of
G-V Capital Corp.

Gentlemen:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of G-V Capital Corp. (a New York corporation) as of December 31, 2002, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit included examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of G-V Capital Corp. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the schedule of computation of net capital is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

G-V CAPITAL CORP.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2002

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General

The Company is registered with the National Association of Securities Dealers and the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker/dealer. The Company has agreed with the National Association of Security Dealers to limit its activities to underwriting registered corporate debt and equity securities, retailing mutual funds, selling tax shelters and limited partnerships and to the private placement of corporate debt and equity securities and to corporate finance activities which include the rendering of financial advice involving investments, negotiations, divestitures, mergers, acquisitions, leveraged buyouts and other similar transactions.

Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its shareholders, elected to have its income taxed under Section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Service Code which provides that in lieu of corporation income taxes, the shareholders are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Consequently, no provision or liability for federal income taxes is reflected in these financial statements.

Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment

All furniture, fixtures and equipment is recorded at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives, using the straight line method. Depreciation for the year was $7,068.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents are considered to be all unrestricted highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the time of acquisition.

G-V CAPITAL CORP.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2002

NOTE 2: LOAN RECEIVABLE

The Company has advanced a company for which they had done work, the sum of $17,000. There is no agreement as to when the repayment will occur. The loan is to be repaid without interest. The Company has recorded an allowance against this loan in the amount of $5,000.

NOTE 3: INVESTMENTS IN SECURITIES

Marketable securities owned consist of investment securities at market values as follows:

Shares	Security	Cost	Market
14,539	Global E Point Inc.	$ 33,205	$ 18,028
26,750	Cash Trust Series Prime Cash Series MMF	26,750	26,750
		$ 59,955	$ 44,778

Securities not readily marketable include investment securities for which (a) there is no market on a securities exchange or no independent publicly quoted market, (b) that cannot be publicly offered or sold unless registration has been effected under the Securities Act of 1933, or (c) that cannot be offered or sold because of other arrangements, restrictions, or conditions applicable to the securities or to the Company.

At December 31, 2002, these securities at estimated fair values consist of the following:

Shares	Security	Cost	Market
40,768	Metalico, Inc.	$120,000	$ 80,000
36,300	Healthmont (Sovereign Medical Acq.) Inc. warrants	9,075	9,075

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

To The Board of Directors and Stockholders of
G-V Capital Corp.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of G-V Capital Corp. (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2002, we considered its internal control, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the proceeding.

Because of inherent limitation in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplishes the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies, which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
