INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder of
Greenwood Investments, LLC
Greenwood Village, Colorado:

We have audited the following financial statements of Greenwood Investments, LLC (the Company), a wholly-owned subsidiary of GW Capital Management, LLC, for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934:

Financial Statements:	Page
Statements of Financial Condition	3
Statements of Operations	4
Statements of Changes in Stockholder's Equity	5
Statements of Cash Flows	6
Notes to Financial Statements	7

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Greenwood Investments, LLC at December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The following supplemental schedules of Greenwood Investments, Inc. as of December 31, 2002, are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements, but are supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934:

Supplemental Schedules:	Page
Computation of Net Capital for Brokers and Dealers Pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934	9
Exemptive Provision under Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Act of 1934	10

These schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Such schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, are fairly stated in all material respects when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

GREENWOOD INVESTMENTS, LLC

(A wholly-owned subsidiary of GW Capital Management, LLC)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2002 AND 2001

1. ORGANIZATION

Organization - Greenwood Investments, LLC (the Company) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of GW Capital Management, LLC (GWCM), which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Great-West Life & Annuity Insurance Company (GWL&A), an insurance company domiciled in Colorado. GWL&A is a wholly-owned subsidiary of GWL&A Financial, Inc., a holding company.

The Company acts as an introducing broker-dealer and clears certain customer transactions through another broker/dealer on a fully-disclosed basis. The Company also facilitates the transfer of monies from participant accounts serviced by its third party administrator affiliate, Financial Administrative Services Corporation to self-directed brokerage accounts maintained on behalf of such participants by other broker-dealers. The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, in that the Company satisfies the conditions for exemption appearing in paragraphs (k)(2)(i) and (k)(2)(ii) of the Rule.

The Company has entered into an agreement with GWL&A, whereby the Company receives administrative services' fees which represent the reimbursement of all expenses incurred. Due from affiliates represents non-interest bearing amounts, which are due upon demand. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the conditions that would exist or the results of operations that would prevail if the Company were operated as an unaffiliated entity.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash - Cash includes only amounts in demand deposit accounts.

Commissions - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Income Taxes - Effective July 1, 2001, the company elected to become a Limited Liability Company. As a Limited Liability Company, the net income is reportable in the tax return of the member. Accordingly, subsequent to July 1, 2001, no provision for income tax was made in the company's financial statements. During the period from January 1, 2001 to June 30, 2001, the Company was inactive.

3. STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The rule requires minimum net capital of 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, or $25,000, whichever is greater, and prohibits withdrawal of equity or the payment of dividends if aggregate indebtedness exceeds 1,000% of net capital. At December 31, 2002, the Company had net capital of $170,386, which was $145,386 in excess of its required net capital of $25,000. Aggregate indebtedness at December 31, 2002 was $10,203 and the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .06 to 1.

EXEMPTIVE PROVISION

UNDER RULE 15c3-3 UNDER THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2002

The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, in that the Company's activities are limited to those set forth in the conditions for exemption appearing in paragraphs (k)(2)(i) and (k)(2)(ii) of the Rule.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder of Greenwood Investments, LLC:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Greenwood Investments, LLC (the Company), a wholly-owned subsidiary of GW Capital Management, LLC, for the year ended December 31, 2002 (on which we have issued our report dated January 27, 2003) we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by the Company that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11), and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control and of the practices and procedures, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the Commission) above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal control or of such practices and procedures to future periods are subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the practices or procedures may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the Company's internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in the Company's internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements caused by errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the Company's internal control and its operation, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the board of directors, management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
