Footnotes to Hewitt Associates LLC's ("Hewitt") Form TA-2:

Items 2c., 2d., 4., 5., and 6.

Hewitt provides recordkeeping and sub-accounting services to defined contribution plans ("Plans"), interests in which are exempted securities, as agent for such Plans or their sponsors, and, in this capacity, maintains records of participant account balances and transactions in various investment options ("Investment Options") made available by the Plans to their participants. Hewitt maintains the investment activity records of plan participants. Hewitt performs similar recordkeeping services as agent for transfer agents of certain Investment Options that are registered investment companies ("Funds"). Hewitt receives share purchase and redemption instructions from Plans, which are based upon instructions communicated to Hewitt by participants of these Plans. This information is reported to the transfer agent, or other designated agent, of the Investment Options and is recorded as an item by the Investment Options' transfer agents.

Item 5a.

This represents the total number of participant accounts in the Plans for which Hewitt provides the recordkeeping services noted above. Participants may have more than one investment account in their Plan.

Items 5d. and 6c.

These represent the total number of Investment Options that have been selected by all Plans to which Hewitt reports Plan participant investment activity, regardless of whether Hewitt has been designated an agent of the Investment Option to perform subtransfer agent functions. The number under "Corporate Equity Securities" reflects Plans that offer company stock as an Investment Option. "Other Securities" are comprised primarily of separate accounts and collective trust funds. Securities issues included in Item 6c. includes funds for which Hewitt has been set up to process payment requests although there may not have been activity in the fund for the given year.

Item 10a.

Many Plans allow for a participant to make contributions to his/her account each payroll period to be automatically invested pursuant to the participant's investment elections. In calculating this number, each payroll contribution to each Fund is considered one transaction.

Item 10b.

This number represents reprocessing of Plan participant balances regardless of cause. Typically, this is due to the Plan sponsor informing Hewitt that participant payroll information was sent to Hewitt incorrectly or a fund company not timely reporting dividend information. This does not reflect that these transactions were not initially processed correctly and timely when received, rather, this primarily reflects readjustments due to receipt of incorrect data from the Plans for Funds.

Item 11a.

Addresses are furnished to Hewitt by the Plan sponsor. Typically, incorrect addresses are caused by sponsors not having updated employee address information, and correct addresses are supplied by the sponsor within 3-6 months. Database searches are conducted at the request of the Plan Sponsor. Under the terms of the provisions of the Plans, interests in Plan assets often forfeit to the Plan in one year if participants cannot be located.
