Independent Auditors' Report

Plan Administrator
Wells Fargo Financial Thrift and Profit Sharing Plan:

We were engaged to audit the financial statements and supplemental schedule of the Wells Fargo Financial Thrift and Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 and for the years then ended, as listed in the accompanying table of contents. These financial statements and supplemental schedule are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for plan benefits as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the changes in net assets available for plan benefits for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets held for investment purposes at end of year is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplemental information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. This "Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year)" is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The "Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year)" has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

WELLS FARGO FINANCIAL THRIFT AND PROFIT SHARING PLAN

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2002 and 2001

1. Description of Plan.

The following description of the Wells Fargo Financial Thrift and Profit Sharing Plan, (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions. Under the Plan, any eligible employee who has attained age 21 and completed six months of Eligibility Service (as defined) is eligible to participate in the Plan by making contributions thereto.

Contributions to provide benefits under the Plan are made by participating employees and by Wells Fargo Financial, Inc. (the "Company") and its participating subsidiaries and affiliated companies (the "Employer"). Under the Plan, an employee may make designated basic after-tax contributions equal to 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 percent of his or her compensation (with compensation not to exceed $200,000). An employee who is making basic contributions equal to 6 percent of his or her compensation may make supplemental after-tax contributions up to 44 percent, in 1 percent increments, of his or her compensation. Contributions made by an employee are credited to his or her employee contribution account. The Employer makes matching basic and discretionary contributions. The basic contribution is $1.00 for each $1.00 of basic employee contributions made during the year and not withdrawn. The Employer may also make a discretionary contribution up to an additional $1.50 for each $1.00 of basic employee contributions made during the year and not withdrawn. This amount is determined by the Wells Fargo Financial Compensation Committee. However, no contributions are made by the Employer for basic employee contributions made during the year by a person who is not in the employ of the Employer or an affiliated company on December 31 of that year. Contributions made by the Employer are credited to the respective employer contribution accounts of the participating employees. Employee and employer contributions credited to the accounts of a participating employee for a plan year are limited to the lesser of (i) $40,000 or (ii) 25 percent of such employee's compensation for such year. Employee and employer contributions credited to the accounts of a highly compensated participant (a participant whose compensation exceeded $85,000 in 2001) for a plan year may be further limited based on the actual contribution percentages for non-highly compensated participants.

Employees are fully vested in their employer contribution accounts after six Years of Vesting Service (as defined in the Plan Document), or upon termination of employment due to death, disability, or retirement on or after age 65. Employees become partially vested in their employer contribution accounts at a rate of 10 percent for each Year of Service completed in years one and two and 20 percent in years three through six. Employees are at all times fully vested in their employee contribution accounts. Forfeitures are used to reduce subsequent employer contributions. Upon termination of employment, various benefit payout alternatives are available at the employee's option.

An employee may borrow from his or her fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50 percent of his or her vested account balances. Loan terms range from 1-5 years or up to 10 years for the purchase of a primary residence. The loans are secured by the balance in the employee's accounts and bear interest at a rate commensurate with prevailing rates as determined by the Plan administrator. Interest rates on Plan loans issued after January 1, 2000 are the prime interest rate plus one percent per annum. Interest rates on Plan loans issued prior to January 1, 2000 are 16 percent per annum. Principal and interest is paid ratably through bi-weekly payroll deductions.

The Plan allows participants to select the manner in which their respective employee and employer contribution account balances are invested from a variety of investment options. Assets in each of the available investment funds are valued daily.

The Plan provides for the allocation of Plan assets in the event the Plan is terminated by the Company, which reserves that right. Each participant will receive payment of the entire amount credited or allocated to his or her employee and employer contribution accounts as of the date of termination, less the proportionate share of any termination expenses incurred by Wells Fargo Thrift & Profit Sharing Trust (the "Trust").

Effective January 1, 2001, the Plan added an option allowing the participants to invest in Wells Fargo & Company Common Stock.

2. Summary of Accounting Policies.

Basis of Accounting. The financial statements of the Plan are prepared under the accrual method of accounting.

Interest and Dividend Income. Interest and dividend income from the trustee-managed investment funds is recorded on a cash basis, which approximates the accrual method of accounting. Dividend income includes capital gain distributions from mutual funds.

Valuation of Investments. Investments other than participant loans are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. The fair value of participant loans are valued by the trustee.

Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Payment of Benefits. Benefits are recorded when paid, which approximates the accrual method of accounting. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, benefits of $249,186 and $192,185, respectively, were due to participants who have withdrawn from participation in the Plan.

3. Tax Status of the Plan.

The Plan obtained its latest determination letter on September 11, 1995, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan has been amended since the effective date of the latest determination letter. A request was made to the IRS in February 2002 for a new determination letter. The submission is still pending with the IRS. However, the Plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, they believe the Plan was qualified and the Trust was tax-exempt as of the financial statement date.

4. Administration.

The Plan is administered by the Retirement Committee appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company. The Company pays certain administrative costs relating to the Plan, and personnel and facilities of the Company have been used by the Plan for its accounting and other activities at no charge to the Plan.

On July 1, 2002, Wells Fargo Bank Minnesota, N.A. (Wells Fargo Bank) became the trustee of the Trust and record keeper of the Plan. Wells Fargo Bank is an affiliate of the Company.

5. Investments.

The Plan's investments (including investments bought, sold, as well as held during the year) depreciated in value by $34,298,976 for 2002; $20,920,357 for 2001 as follows:

Net (Depreciation)Appreciation in Fair Value	2002	2001

	$(34,298,976)	$(20,920,357)

The Plan holds certain debt securities of the Company as investments in the Wells Fargo Financial Intermediate Bond Fund. The Wells Fargo Financial Intermediate Bond Fund is a group of investments managed by Company personnel. These securities are purchased on the open market at prevailing market rates and, upon maturity, are redeemed at par by the Company.

The fair value of individual investments that represent 5.0 percent or more of the Plan's net assets at December 31 are as follows:

	2002	2001
Wells Fargo Financial Intermediate Bond Fund	$77,698,446	$72,431,255
