Broadcasting-related Business

This segment consists of subsidiaries involved in program production, art, and technology. Companies in this segment sought to streamline costs and increase outside sources of revenue to compensate for a decline in orders from the parent company.

Sales in this segment totaled ¥10.5 billion, and operating income amounted to ¥0.2 billion.

Direct Marketing

In the first quarter of fiscal 2004, hit products in the areas of beauty and health continued to perform well in the Direct Marketing business. Concerns about a negative effect on sales with the implementation of shipping fees were unfounded, and revenues from shipping fees contributed to solid sales and income in this segment.

Sales by the Direct Marketing segment amounted to ¥16.4 billion, and operating income came to ¥1.2 billion.

Other Businesses

The Other segment, which comprises subsidiaries involved in a variety of fields, posted sales of ¥6.7 billion and operating income of ¥3.3 billion in the quarter under review.

Equity-method Affiliates

Investment income (loss) on equity method affiliates in the first quarter of fiscal 2004 totaled ¥0.4 billion.

Due to fund management that included the acquisition of marketable securities with a maturity of more than three months such as commercial papers and corporate bonds, cash flows used in investing activities amounted to ¥23.2 billion, and cash flows used in financing activities totaled ¥1.2 billion, primarily due to dividend payments.

As a result, cash and cash equivalents at the end of the period totaled ¥39.4 billion, a ¥15.9 billion decrease compared with the end of the previous fiscal year.

Outlook

Although the Group outperformed forecasts in the first quarter of fiscal 2004, the advertising market is expected to remain sluggish. Despite this, higher revenues expected from the movies, events, and other non-broadcasting income from the Broadcasting business, as well as the solid performance of the mail-order business, has enabled the Fuji TV Group to make upward revisions to forecasts for both the interim period as well as the full fiscal year.

Looking at interim forecasts, we anticipate that consolidated net sales will total ¥219.0 billion, recurring profit will amount to ¥18.0 billion, and net income will total ¥10.0 billion. Forecasts for the year anticipate that consolidated net sales will amount to ¥434.5 billion, recurring profit will come to ¥35.5 billion, and net income will total ¥17.5 billion.
