Directors' retirement

Sir John Parker, a Non-executive Director of Brambles, has decided to retire as a Director at the conclusion of the Brambles Industries plc annual general meeting to be held on 21 October 2003, given his other workload commitments. Sir John has been a director of Brambles since August 2001 and serves on its Remuneration Committee.

As part of the Board's ongoing process of renewal, Mr Ron Milne, a Non-executive Director of Brambles who will stand for re-election at this year's annual general meetings, has indicated that he will retire at the conclusion of the Brambles' annual general meetings to be held in 2004, having regard to his length of service.

An international search firm has been engaged to recruit replacement Directors with suitable skills and experience.

We note that representatives of the Cartel Office in Germany yesterday visited 120 sites across the entire German waste management industry, including a number of Cleanaway sites, seeking information in relation to the DSD (Packaging Recycling scheme) re-tendering process.

No allegations have been made against Cleanaway, which is co-operating with the authorities in the conduct of their enquiries.
