Media Release

Matthias Mölleney to become the new Unaxis head of personnel and member of the Executive Board

Pfäffikon, 9/24/2003 – The Unaxis Board of Directors is appointing Matthias Mölleney as head of Corporate Human Resources, and to the Executive Board. Jürg Hälg, the present holder of the post, is stepping down for health reasons.

Matthias Mölleney (43) is taking over as head of Corporate Human Resources at Unaxis on 11/1/2003 and will join the Executive Board. The post makes him responsible for Unaxis worldwide personnel management. Mölleney began his career at Lufthansa, where he spent 16 years in various international management positions. He became Chief Personnel Officer of the Swissair Group in 1998, later moving to the same post at Centerpulse.

Mölleney will succeed the outgoing personnel head, Jürg Hälg, who is stepping down for health reasons but will maintain ties with Unaxis as a consultant for cultural and management development projects.
