Geoffrey Rubython, Director,
Tennyson Networks Limited (Administrators Appointed)
Statement to
Creditors Meeting 20th October 2003

Mindful of the implications, the Directors of Tennyson Networks Limited last week decided that there was no alternative but to appoint an Administrator to manage the affairs of Tennyson until Neoside Pty Ltd had met its obligations under its Facility Agreement with Tennyson.

Neoside had earlier defaulted on its Facility Agreement obligations, and had left the company with insufficient working capital.

The failure of Neoside to fulfil its obligations has been due to delays in completing a major transaction.

Through Neoside, Mr. John Fletcher, who represents the consortium funding Neoside, has since assured the Tennyson Board, and the Administrator, that Neoside will fulfil its Subscription Agreement obligations in time for a shareholder vote on the agreement at a General Meeting of shareholders scheduled for the 31st October 2003.

The Directors of Tennyson will ensure that, providing Neoside fulfils its subscription agreement obligations, the company will meet its obligations to creditors and settle in full, following the receipt of funds from Neoside.
