Dear Mr. Brooke,

Re: Tennyson Networks-Funding Schedule

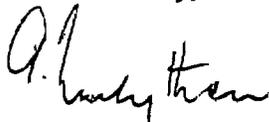

Mr. John Fletcher, a Director of Neoside, who represents the interests of a consortium funding Neoside, and recently returned from overseas, today advised the undersigned that though the consortium continues to fail to meet its funding commitment to enable Neoside to fulfil its Subscription obligations to Tennyson Networks Limited, he and his consortium will nonetheless have the required funds within fourteen days.

The transaction supporting the consortium's funding commitment is still in place.

Unfortunately, the transaction had been subject to changes in the execution process. We understand from Mr. Fletcher that the parties approved these at the end of last week.

Further, the Directors of Neoside confirm advice tendered with its letter to you dated the 20th October 2003, that following the completion of its funding commitment to Tennyson Networks Limited under its Subscription Agreement with the company, now approved by shareholders at their general meeting on the 31st October 2003, they will assist the Tennyson's Directors and the Administrator to expeditiously settle all creditors outstandings in full.

Yours faithfully,

Geoffrey Rubython
Director
