NOTICE

Komerční banka announces, that in the framework of the procedure provided for by the Accession Treaty, the Czech Republic has notified the European Commission of the measures granted by the Czech state to Komerční banka before accession in the framework of its restructuring and privatisation. 16th December the European Commission announced that none of the measures notified by the Czech authorities in favour of Komerční banka are applicable after accession of the Czech Republic to the European Union. This means that the European Commission will not review these measures further.
