INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
Omnivest, Inc.
Denver, Colorado

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial conditions of OmniVest, Inc. as of March 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Omnivest, Inc. as of March 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

OMNIVEST, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2003

Note A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Nature of business:

The Company is a registered broker/dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Act).

The Company operates pursuant to paragraph (k) (2) (B) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Act and does not carry customer accounts or clear customer transactions. Accordingly, all customer transactions are executed and cleared on behalf of the Company by other broker-dealers. As a result, the Company is exempt from the remaining provisions and requirements of Rule 15c3-3(c)(2) of the Act.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments, purchased with an original maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Securities:

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis, which is the date a transaction is executed.

Depreciation and amortization:

Depreciation of computer equipment and office equipment is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

For income tax purposes, depreciation of computer equipment and office equipment is computed using the MACRS method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Normal repairs and maintenance expenses are charged to operations and major improvements are capitalized.

Income Taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes under SFAS No. 109, which requires the asset and liability approach to accounting for income taxes. Under this approach, deferred income taxes are determined based upon differences between the financial statement and tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities and operating loss carryforwards using enacted tax rates in effect for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are recognized if it is more likely than not that the future tax benefit will be realized.

OMNIVEST, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2003

Note A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT):

Revenue Recognition:

Revenue is recognized when it is earned. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments:

The financial instruments of the Company are reported in the statement of financial condition at market or fair values, or at carrying amounts that approximated fair values. These items are carried at the estimated fair values of these financial instruments at March 31, 2003.

Concentrations of Credit Risk:

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty, or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

Note B. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Company is subject to the Securities & Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1. At March 31, 2003 the Company had net capital of $20,985, which was $15,985 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.30 to 1.

Note C. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

Transfer of the Company's stock is restricted by giving the Company the right of first refusal before the stock can be sold to unrelated parties.

Note D. SEGMENT INFORMATION:

Omnivest, Inc. operates primarily in a single operating segment, the stock brokerage business.

To the Board of Directors of
Omnivest, Inc.
Denver, Colorado

We have audited the financial statements of OmniVest, Inc. for the year ended March 31, 2003 and have issued our report thereon dated May 30, 2003. As part of our audit, we made a study and evaluation of the Company's system of internal accounting control (which includes the procedures for safeguarding securities) to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by generally accepted auditing standards. The purpose of our study and evaluation was to determine the nature, timing, and extent of the auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements. Our study and evaluation was more limited than would be necessary to express an opinion on the system of internal control taken as a whole.

We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exempting provisions of rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company (i) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13 or (ii) in complying with the requirements from prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above mentioned objectives. The objectives of a system and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with managements authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal accounting control procedures or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with them may deteriorate.

Our study and evaluation, made for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph, would not necessarily disclose all material weaknesses in the system. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of OmniVest, Inc. taken as a whole. However, our study and evaluation disclosed no condition that we believed to be a material weakness. In addition, such study and evaluation indicated that the Company was in compliance with the conditions of the exemption under paragraph (k) (2) (ii) of rule 15c3-3, and no facts came to our attention indicating that such conditions had not been complied with during the period.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at March 31, 2003 to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and should not be used for any other purpose.

To the Board of Directors of
Omnivest, Inc.
Denver, Colorado

In accordance with rule 17a-5(e)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have performed the following procedures with respect to the accompanying schedule (Form SIPC-7) of Securities Investor Protection Corporation assessments and payments of OmniVest, Inc., for the year ended March 31, 2003. Our procedures were performed solely to assist you in complying with rule 17a-5(e)(4), and our report is not to be used for any other purpose. The procedures we performed are as follows:

- 1.) Compared listed assessment payments with respective cash disbursements records entries;
- 2.) Compared amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the period April 1, 2002 to March 31, 2003, with the amounts reported in the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7);
- 3.) Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers;
- 4.) Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting adjustments.

Because the above procedures do not constitute an audit made in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States, we do not express an opinion on the schedule referred to above. In connection with the procedures referred to above, nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that the amounts shown on Form SIPC-7 were not determined in accordance with applicable instructions and forms. This report relates only to the schedule referred to above and does not extend to any financial statement of Omnivest, Inc. taken as a whole.
