Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

1. Organization

Enskilda Securities Inc. (the "Company") is a wholly owned subsidiary of Enskilda Securities AB (the "Parent"). The Company is registered as an introducing broker and dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers Inc. ("NASD"). The Company is also registered as an introducing broker with the National Futures Association.

The Company's activities primarily include research, effecting securities transactions in securities listed on major European exchanges for U.S. institutional customers as well as providing financial advisory services in connection with transatlantic mergers and acquisitions. Under an agreement with a foreign affiliate, the Company introduces customers' securities transactions to the affiliate, which clears and settles the transactions on a RVP/DVP basis and forwards a file of transactions executed to a U.S. clearing broker. The customer accounts are carried by the U.S. clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis.

Customer securities transactions in U.S. listed securities are introduced by the Company to the U.S. clearing broker, which clears the transactions on a fully disclosed basis.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

The Company considers all short-term investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. All the cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2001 were held by one financial institution.

Deferred income taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts, based on enacted tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The fair value of all financial instruments approximates the book value due to the short-term nature of such instruments.

3. Income Taxes

The Company's deferred tax asset of $259,752 is primarily attributable to the difference in the recognition of depreciation expense between financial and tax reporting purposes. No valuation allowance has been established as management believes it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will be realized.

4. Related Party Transactions

Effective January 1, 1995, the Company entered into a Legal Accounting by Office agreement (the "Agreement") with the Parent, under which the Company agreed to reimburse the Parent for research, trading and business support costs ("Allocated Costs") provided by the Parent to the Company. In accordance with the Agreement, as amended in 1998, research costs are allocated to ESI based on the percentage of ESI's commission revenue to the Parent's total commission revenue, and trading and business support expenses are allocated to ESI based on the number of ESI's customer transactions to the number of the Parent's total customers transactions.

5. Leases

The Company has obligations under noncancellable operating leases with terms in excess of one year.

As of December 31, 2002, the minimum annual rental commitments under these noncancellable leases, subject to escalation based on increases in certain costs incurred by the lessor, are as follows:

Period ending December 31:

2003	$ 365,810
2004	371,119
2005	252,002
2006	241,152
2007	253,712
Thereafter	555,152
	$ 2,038,947

6. Pension Plans

The Company participates in a 401(k) plan and a defined contribution plan sponsored and administered by an affiliate. The 401(k) plan covers all eligible employees of the Company and the defined contribution plan covers all eligible US employees.

The Company participates in a defined contribution plan sponsored and administered by the Parent. The plan covers all eligible non-US employees of the Company.

7. Financial Instruments With Off Balance Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company clears all of its securities transactions through clearing brokers on a fully disclosed basis. Pursuant to the terms of the agreements between the Company and the clearing brokers, the clearing brokers have the right to charge the Company for losses that result from a counterparty's failure to fulfill its contractual obligations.

As the right to charge the Company has no maximum amount and applies to all trades executed through the clearing broker, the Company believes there is no maximum amount assignable to this right. At December 31, 2002, the Company has recorded no liabilities with regard to the right.

In addition, the Company has the right to pursue collection or performance from the counterparties who do not perform under their contractual obligations. The Company monitors the credit standing of the clearing brokers and all counterparties with which it conducts business.

8. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $100,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined. At December 31, 2002, the Company had net capital of $3,368,483, which was $2,992,424 in excess of the amount required of $376,059. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.67 to 1.

The Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 under subparagraph (k) (2) (ii) because it does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions related to customer securities.
