INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of
Wang Trading, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Wang Trading, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2003. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Wang Trading, LLC as of December 31, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

WANG TRADING, LLC

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

DECEMBER 31, 2003

1. NOTES ON SIGNIFICANT BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Wang Trading, LLC (the "Company") was organized under the Limited Liability Company Act of the State of Delaware, on September 5, 2001 and became registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 6, 2002. On July 29, 2002 the Company became registered with the Philadelphia Stock Exchange, Inc. and began its trading operations. In this capacity, it executes proprietary transactions that are forwarded, on a fully disclosed basis, to Schonfeld Securities, LLC ("Schonfeld"), the Company's clearing agent, who is also an affiliate of the sole Class C member.

In the normal course of its business, the Company enters into financial transactions where the risk of potential loss due to changes in market (market risk) or failure of the other party to the transaction to perform (credit risk) exceeds the amounts recorded for the transaction.

The Company's policy is to continuously monitor its exposure to market and counterparty risk through the use of a variety of financial, position and credit exposure reporting and control procedures.

The clearing and depository operations for the Company's proprietary transactions are performed by its Schonfeld pursuant to a joint back office arrangement. This arrangement enables the Company to use Schonfeld's capital to meet its margin requirements. As of December 31, 2003, primarily all of the amounts due from brokers and dealers reflected in the statement of financial condition are substantially in cash.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company records securities transactions and related revenues and expenses on a trade date basis.

Securities owned, and securities sold not yet purchased, are stated at quoted market values with unrealized gains or losses reflected in income. Subsequent market fluctuations may require selling, or purchasing, the securities at prices which may differ from the market value reflected on the statement of financial condition.

Security transactions and financing with the clearing broker are classified as operating activities on the statement of cash flows since this is the Company's principal business.

Depreciation is provided for on accelerated methods over the useful lives of the assets. Organization costs are amortized using the straight-line method over 60 months.

WANG TRADING, LLC

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION (CONTINUED)

DECEMBER 31, 2003

The Company maintains its books and records on an accrual basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. COMMITMENTS

The Company rents office space in under a lease agreement, which expires during 2006. Minimum future lease payments, exclusive of required payments for increases in real estate tax and other operating costs are as follows:

Year ending December 31,

2004	$187,921
2005	192,395
2006	180,523
Total	$560,839

4. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In the course of its normal trading activities, the Company is a party to financial instruments that involve, to indeterminable degrees, market risks in excess of that presented in the statement of financial condition. These instruments include puts and calls written on stock, and obligations arising from securities sold, but not yet purchased. The Company's activities include the purchase and sale of derivative financial instruments in the form of equity and index futures. These derivatives are used for trading purposes and for managing risks associated with the portfolio of securities. The Company's core trading positions involve risk-defined hedged strategies. Accordingly, management believes that any risk is significantly minimized through its hedging strategies. All positions are reported at market value and any change in market value is reflected in the accompanying statement of income as gain or loss as it occurs. All derivative gain or loss resulting from equity positions is reported in net trading income.

5. PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES

The Company is recognized as a Limited Liability Company (an "LLC") by the Internal Revenue Service. As an LLC, the Company is not subject to income taxes. The Company's income or loss is reportable by its members on their individual tax returns based on methodology prescribed in the Company's Operating Agreement.

6. RULE 15C3-3

The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under paragraph (k)(2)(B) in that the Company carries no margin accounts, promptly transmits all customer funds and delivers all securities received, does not otherwise hold funds or securities for or owe money or securities to customers and effectuates all financial transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis.

7. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2003, the Company had net capital of $4,401,206, which exceeded the minimum requirement of $100,000 by $4,301,206. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .05 to 1.
