Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2003

(1) Organization

HW Advisors, Inc. (the Corporation) is a New York corporation organized on August 11, 1998, doing business as HFV Investments, Inc. As of January 1, 2000, the Corporation is owned by Hunt Financial Ventures, L.P. (Parent). The Corporation maintains an office in New York, New York.

The Corporation is a registered broker-dealer under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 engaging in business as a broker dealer, underwriter, investment advisor, and financial consultant as well as rendering of other financial services related to its general securities business. In addition, the Corporation is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940.

The accompanying financial statements do not include a statement of changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors as required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, since no such liabilities existed at December 31, 2003 or for the year ended December 31, 2003.

(2) Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Income Taxes

The liability for income taxes is based on the tax basis cash net income for the year.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the year in which these temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(3) Net Capital Requirements

As a registered broker-dealer, the Corporation is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness or $5,000.

At December 31, 2003, the Corporation had net capital of $83,807, which was $78,807 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Corporation had aggregate indebtedness of $1,388 at December 31, 2003 and the aggregate indebtedness ratio was .017 to 1.

(4) Rule 15c3-3

The Corporation is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 under subsection (k). Under this exemption, the Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements and Information Relating to the Possession or Control Requirements are not required.

(5) Income Taxes

The income tax expense for the year ended December 31, 2003 consists of:

Current	$	1,580
Deferred		13,204
	$	14,784

The Company's effective tax rate varied from the statutory federal income tax rate for the year ended December 31, 2003 as follows:

Statutory rate		34.00%
State taxes, net of federal income tax benefit		6.88%
Effective tax rate		40.88%

Differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities that give rise to significant portions of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the years ended December 31, 2003 is as follows:

Deferred tax assets:
Capitalized employee costs	$	24,569
Organization cost, difference in amortization		418
Deferred tax assets		24,987
Deferred tax liability:
Accrued receivables		(2,519)
Deferred tax benefit, net	$	22,468

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the existence of, or generation of, taxable income in the periods which those temporary differences are deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, taxes paid in carryback years, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based upon the level of historical taxable income and estimates of future taxable income over the periods which the deferred tax assets are deductible, at December 31, 2003 management believes it is more likely than not that the Company will realize the benefits of these deductible differences.

Computation of Net Capital Under Rule 15c3-1
of the Securities and Exchange Commission

December 31, 2003

Net capital:

Total stockholder's equity per the accompanying financial statements	$	113,431
Nonallowable assets		29,624
Net capital		83,807
Computation of basic net capital requirement:
Minimum net capital required (the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness)		5,000
Excess net capital	$	78,807
Aggregate indebtedness	$	1,388
Ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital		.017 to 1

Note: The above computation does not differ materially from the computation of net capital prepared by the Corporation as of December 31, 2003 and filed with the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. on January 27, 2004 on Form X-17A-5.

See accompanying independent auditors' report.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Corporation's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2003 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the board of directors, management, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
