INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members
The Securities Group, LLC
Memphis, Tennessee

We have audited the statement of financial condition of The Securities Group, LLC as of December 31, 2003 and the related statements of loss and changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Securities Group, LLC at December 31, 2003, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

THE SECURITIES GROUP, LLC

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2003

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

The Securities Group, LLC (a Florida limited liability company, the "Company") began operations on August 1, 2001, and is a registered securities broker and dealer operating in the United States of America. The Company was organized to sell healthcare securities and shall have a perpetual existence, unless since terminated as provided in the Operating Agreement. The Company has a single class of members. Except as expressly provided in the Operating Agreement, no member shall be required under any circumstances to contribute or lend any money or property to the Company, beyond their initial capital contribution.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Commission revenues and commission expenses are recorded on a trade date basis.

Concentrations and Credit Risks

The Company's credit risks primarily relate to cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. The Company maintains cash balances at a bank. Those accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to an aggregate of $100,000. Accounts receivable consists primarily of amounts due from clients throughout the Mid-South. The Company's management evaluates the collectibility of receivables and a reserve is not considered necessary.

Three customers accounted for 86% of the Company's commission revenues for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Office equipment is stated at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over its estimated useful life of 5 years.

Income Taxes

No provision has been made for income taxes, as the results of operations are includible in the tax returns of the members.

NOTE 2 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company rents office space, furniture and equipment for $500 per month on a month-to-month basis from a company in which a member has an ownership interest. Total related party rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2003 was $6,000.

NOTE 3 - LINE OF CREDIT

The Company had a $25,000 open line of credit at a variable interest rate earlier in the year. The outstanding balance of $12,000 was paid during January of this year. The line of credit matured on March 8, 2003 and was not renewed.

NOTE 4 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2003, the Company had net capital of $32,795, which was $27,795 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS UNDER SEC RULE 17a-5

To the Members of
The Securities Group, LLC
Memphis, Tennessee

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of The Securities Group, LLC as of December 31, 2003 and for the year then ended, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the reserves required by rule 15c3-3(e).

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risks that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2003, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
