Independent auditors' report

To the Stockholder of
Desjardins Securities International Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Desjardins Securities International Inc. (the "Company") as at December 31, 2003 and 2002 and the related statements of income, retained earnings and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Security Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2003 and 2002 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The following supplemental schedules of Desjardins Securities International Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements, but are supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934:

- Computation of Net Capital for Brokers and Dealers pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;
- Information relating to Control Requirements for Brokers and Dealers pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

These schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Such schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audits of the financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects when considered in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to the financial statements

years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

(in US dollars)

1. Description of the business

The Company, incorporated January 24, 2001 under the Canada Business Corporations Act, is a full-service securities broker. On January 29, 2002, the Company changed its name from 3858839 Canada Inc. to Desjardins Securities International Inc. Business operations commenced in July 2002.

The Company is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers and is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

2. Significant accounting policies

Fixed assets

Fixed assets are recorded for at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated over the useful lives of the assets using the straight-line method for a period of three to five years.

Commissions and trading gains

Commissions and trading gains are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occurs.

Income taxes

The Company follows the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets are recognized based on the future tax consequences of differences between the carrying amount of balance sheet items and their corresponding tax basis, using the expected income tax rates for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. A valuation allowance is provided for the amount of deferred tax assets which are not considered more likely than not to be realized.

Foreign currency transactions

Monetary assets and liabilities are translated in U.S. dollars at the rate of exchange in effect at year-end. Non-monetary assets and liabilities, capital stock issued and revenue and expenses are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the transaction date. Gains or losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in net income.

Use of estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingencies at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

5. Income taxes

Earnings are subject to federal and provincial income taxes. The effective tax rate on earnings varies from one year to the next according to the changes in the combined statutory income tax rate. The provision for income taxes in the statement of earnings differs from the amount that would have been computed by applying the Canadian statutory income tax rate as a result of the following:

	2003	2002
Income taxes at the combined statutory rate of 38.02%	69,492	-
Change in income taxes resulting from the following:
Non-taxable foreign currency gain	(17,210)	-
Prior years tax benefit	(59,500)	-
Non-deductible expenses and other elements	35,926	-
	28,708	-

Future income tax assets are as follows:

	2003	2002
Fixed assets	1,562	-
Other assets	1,346	-
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	54,322	-

DESJARDINS SECURITIES INTERNATIONAL INC. Schedule II
Statement regarding SEC Rule 15c3-3
year ended December 31, 2003

The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Security and Exchange Commission under paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of that Rule.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5 FOR A
BROKER CLAIMING AN EXEMPTION FROM SEC RULE 15c-3-3

To the Stockholder of
Desjardins Securities International Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Desjardins Securities International Inc. (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2003 (on which we issued our report dated January 30, 2004), we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company (including tests of such practices and procedures) that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recording of differences required by rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the "SEC") above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and may not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal controls or of such practice and procedures of future periods are subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the practices or procedures may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the Company's internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in the Company's internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements caused by error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and may not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the Company's internal control and its operations (including control activities for safeguarding securities) that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2003 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
