CANTOR, WEISS & FRIEDNER, INC.
STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
DECEMBER 31, 2003

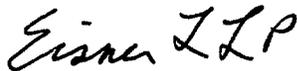

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors
Cantor, Weiss & Friedner, Inc.
New York, New York

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Cantor, Weiss & Friedner, Inc. as of December 31, 2003, that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Cantor, Weiss & Friedner, Inc. as of December 31, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2003

NOTE A - BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

- [1] Cantor, Weiss & Friedner, Inc. (the "Company") is a registered broker/dealer, clearing all of its customer transactions through a correspondent broker on a fully disclosed basis. The Company also trades securities on margin for its own account.
- [2] Securities owned are valued at market value based on exchange quoted prices or at fair value as determined by management.
- [3] Furniture, fixtures, office equipment and leasehold improvements are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided on both the straight-line and accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets or over the lease term.
- [4] The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE B - INCOME TAXES

The Company reports on a cash basis for income tax purposes. The Company elected to be treated as an S corporation pursuant to Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code. A similar election was made for state tax purposes. As a result of this election, the Company's income or loss is reportable on the individual tax returns of its stockholders who may withdraw such income without any additional tax consequences to them. The Company is subject to local income taxes.

NOTE C - NET CAPITAL

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2003, the Company had net capital of approximately $1,163,000 which was $1,063,000 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .11 to 1.

NOTE D - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Substantially all of the Company's cash and securities positions are held by a custodian broker. The Company's custodian broker is highly capitalized and a member of major securities exchanges.

Although the Company clears its customer transactions through another broker/dealer, nonperformance by its customers in fulfilling their contractual obligations pursuant to securities transactions may expose the Company to risk and potential loss.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2003

NOTE E - COMMITMENTS - LEASES

The Company leases office space under a lease expiring in February 2007 and two subleases which expire in 2004. The leases are subject to escalations for increases in real estate taxes and operating costs. The aggregate minimum annual rentals under the lease and sublease are approximately as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	Minimum Rentals
2004	$ 234,000
2005	191,000
2006	191,000
2007	32,000
	$ 648,000

In lieu of a rent security deposit, the Company maintains an irrevocable standby letter of credit in favor of its landlord in the amount of $60,000.

NOTE F - 401(K) PLAN

The Company maintains a defined contribution retirement plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. Employees who have completed six months of service and have attained 21 years of age are eligible to participate. Participants may contribute up to 15% of their salary. The plan provides for discretionary employer matching contributions.

NOTE G - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

[1] Credit facility:

The Company maintains a line of credit with a financial institution which provides for borrowing of up to $500,000. Borrowings under the line of credit bear interest at 1% above the prime rate. The stockholders of the Company and several related parties have personally guaranteed any borrowings. In January 2004, the Company borrowed $300,000 of this credit facility.

[2] Distribution to stockholders:

In January 2004, the Company distributed $300,000 to its stockholders.
