A.H. HAYNES & CO., INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS:

A.H. Haynes & Co., Inc. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD"). The Company transacts its business with customers located throughout the United States.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition:

Securities transactions are recorded as follows: commission revenue, commission expenses and management fees are recorded on a settlement date basis, generally the third business day following the trade date. The effect of recording these transactions at settlement rather than on a trade-date basis is not material.

Marketable securities are valued at market value.

Investments in Partnerships:

The Company is a limited partner in two investment partnerships and carries these investments at their estimated fair values using the underlying values of the net assets. The change in fair value is treated as income (loss) on the statement of operations.

Income Taxes:

The Company has elected to be treated as an S Corporation under the appropriate provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the Company itself is not subject to federal income tax. In addition, the Company has elected S Corporation status for New York State tax purposes and, accordingly, pays New York State income tax at the minimum rate. The stockholder is required to report separately her distributive share of the Company's income or loss to federal and state tax authorities. New York City, however, does not recognize S Corporation status, and therefore, the Company is taxed at regular corporation tax rates.

Cash Equivalents:

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of less than three months when purchased to be cash equivalents.

3. CLEARANCE AGREEMENT:

The Company has an agreement with a clearing broker to execute and clear, on a fully disclosed basis, customer and proprietary accounts of the Company. In accordance with this agreement, the Company is required to maintain a deposit in cash or securities.

4. COMMITMENTS:

The Company was obligated under a noncancellable operating lease for its office premises, which expired on June 27, 2003. The lease provided for payment of specific amounts subject to escalation based on certain operating costs.

Subsequent to expiration of the lease, the Company is renting the premises on a month-to-month basis at a monthly rate of $4,283. In addition, the Company is subletting a portion of office space on a month-to-month basis in the amount of $1,864.

5. RELATED PARTY:

Included in other assets are non-interest bearing advances of approximately $119,000 to the Company's sole stockholder.

6. EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT PLANS:

The Company sponsors a defined contribution retirement plan covering all its full-time employees. The required contribution to the plan is 25% of employee compensation.

7. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Company is subject to the net capital requirements of rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission which requires a broker-dealer to have at all times sufficient liquid assets to cover current indebtedness. In accordance with the rule, the Company is required to maintain defined minimum net capital to the greater of $5,000 or 1/15 of aggregate indebtedness, including specific items. At no time may the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1).

At December 31, 2003 the Company had net capital of $115,968 which was $110,968 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. Aggregate indebtedness at December 31, 2003 was $64,612. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .56 to 1.

8. OFF-BALANCE-SHEET CREDIT RISK:

The Company, as an introducing broker, clears all transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis with the clearing broker, and promptly transmits all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker, who carries all of the accounts of such customers. The Company does not maintain margin accounts for its customers; and, therefore, there were no excess margin securities. However, the Company may be liable for chargebacks on introduced customer accounts carried by the clearing broker. In addition, the Company may be exposed to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the clearing broker is unable to fulfill its contractual obligations.

* * * * *

The Company's Statement of Financial Condition as of December 31, 2003 is available for examination at the office of the Company and at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
A.H. Haynes & Co., Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of A.H. Haynes & Co., Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2003, that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of A.H. Haynes & Co., Inc. as of December 31, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
