Report of Independent Accountants

Board of Directors
Hamilton, Johnston & Co., Inc.
a/k/a Hamilton & Company

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Hamilton, Johnston & Co., Inc. a/k/a Hamilton & Company (the "Company") as of December 31, 2003 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Hamilton, Johnston & Co., Inc. a/k/a Hamilton & Company, at December 31, 2003, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

HAMILTON, JOHNSTON & CO., INC. A/K/A HAMILTON & COMPANY

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Organization,
Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and nature of business - The Company is a New Jersey corporation and was organized in 1977. The Company provides consulting services on investment planning, organization and supervision to select individuals, endowments, foundations and corporations. The Company has agreed to use BNY Clearing Services, LLC and Broadcort Correspondent Clearing, Division of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc. (formerly Broadcort Capital Corp.) as their exclusive clearing brokers on a fully disclosed basis. On August 2, 2003, the Company's clearing agreement with BNY Clearing Services, LLC was terminated.

Receivable from clients - Receivable from clients is reported in the statement of financial condition at its outstanding principal balance. Management has reviewed outstanding receivables, historical collection information and existing economic conditions and believes receivables are substantially collectible; therefore, no allowance for doubtful accounts is provided at December 31, 2003.

Property and equipment - Equipment, furniture and fixtures are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided principally in accordance with the Modified Accelerated Cost Recovery System (MACRS) and Accelerated Cost Recovery System (ACRS) as provided by the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981 and the Tax Reform Act of 1986 which approximates depreciation based on the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred and renewals and improvements are capitalized. When property and equipment are sold or retired, the cost thereof and the related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the respective property accounts and resulting gains or losses are taken into operations.

Commissions - The Company recognizes commissions and related costs arising from security transactions on a settlement date basis. Recording commissions and related costs on a trade date basis would not result in a material difference.

Fees - Fees are received quarterly but are recognized as earned on a pro rata basis over the term of the contract.

Income taxes - Deferred tax provisions and benefits are calculated for certain transactions and events because of differing treatments under generally accepted accounting principles and the currently enacted tax laws of the Federal and State governments. The results of these differences on a cumulative basis, known as temporary differences, result in the recognition and measurement of deferred tax assets and liabilities in the statement of financial condition.

HAMILTON, JOHNSTON & CO., INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Deferred Income Taxes

The net deferred tax liability of $21,526 in the accompanying statement of financial condition is the result of different methods used for reporting pension expense and depreciation for financial accounting and income taxes.

As of December 31, 2003, the Company has net operating loss carryforwards for state income tax purposes of approximately $141,000 of which $85,000 expires in 2009 and $56,000 expires in 2011, unless utilized sooner.

The Company's deferred tax asset resulting from the loss carryforwards is as follows:

Net operating loss carryforwards	$ 9,200
Valuation allowance	(9,200)
Net deferred tax asset - loss carryforwards	$ -

The tax provision differs from the expense that would result from applying the federal statutory rate to income before income taxes primarily due to the effect of graduated tax rates for taxable income less than $75,000.

3. Commitments

The Company had a noncancelable operating office lease expiring in 2002.

On January 18, 2002, the Company exercised an option to extend the original lease for an additional five year period expiring July 31, 2007. The Company also executed an additional renewal option to extend the lease for another five years commencing August 1, 2007.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The future minimum annual rental commitments under the noncancelable lease are as follows:

Years ending December 31,
2004	$ 179,884
2005	182,911
2006	185,939
2007	109,495
	$ 658,229

Total rental expense including escalations charged to operations was $185,643 for 2003.

4. Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Company has a defined benefit pension plan that was adopted in 1991 and covers substantially all employees. The plan calls for benefits to be paid to eligible employees at retirement, based primarily upon years of service with the Company and compensation rates near retirement. Effective December 31, 2001, the Company froze the defined benefit pension plan; therefore, the plan will not accrue additional benefits for future employee services.

The following sets forth the funded status of the plan and the amounts shown in the accompanying statement of financial condition at December 31, 2003:

Benefit Obligation	$ 1,120,841
Fair Value of Plan Assets	1,144,961
Funded Status	$ (24,120)
Accrued Benefit Cost Recognized in the Statement of Financial Condition	$ 175,174

The Company's assumptions used in determining both the benefit obligation at December 31, 2003 and the net benefit cost for the year then ended are as follows:

Weighted-average discount rate	7.00%
Weighted-average expected long-term rate of return on plan assets	7.00%
Weighted-average rate of compensation increase	0.00% (benefits are frozen)

HAMILTON, JOHNSTON & CO., INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Benefit cost, employer contributions, and benefits paid for 2003 are as follows:

Benefit cost	$ 10.427
Employer contributions	$ -
Benefits paid	$ 6.085

5. Financial Instruments
with Off-
Statement of Financial Condition Risk

In the normal course of business, the Company's activities may expose the Company to risk in the event brokers, dealers or clearing organizations are unable to fulfill their contractual obligations.

6. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, which requires that aggregate indebtedness, as defined, shall not exceed 1500% of net capital, as defined. At December 31, 2003, the Company had net capital of $277,629 which was $250,745 in excess of the amount required to be maintained at that date and had a percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of 145%.

There were no subordinated borrowings at any time during the year ended December 31, 2003.
