Press Information

Vienna International Airport:
Strong development of traffic in January

The development of traffic at Vienna International Airport was unusually strong in January 2004. The number of passengers rose 10.9% and transfers increased 7.4%. Growth was also recorded in flight movements (+7.9%) and maximum take-off weight (7.0%). Cargo turnover was satisfactory, with an increase of 5.5%. This underscores the upward trend that began during the second half of 2003.

Solid growth was also registered in the long-haul segment. The number of passengers travelling to the USA rose 17%, while traffic to the Far East remained somewhat behind expectations with a plus of 4.5%. Destinations in the Near and Middle East reported a sharp rise of 24%.
