Bradford & Bingley signs licensing agreement with D M Hall and sells Scottish surveying business

SecureMove Property Services Ltd, the wholly owned surveying and corporate and residential property services subsidiary of Bradford & Bingley Plc, today announces that it has signed the first licensing agreement for its SecureMove Home Report with D M Hall, one of Scotland's largest independent surveying partnerships.

The three-year agreement enables Edinburgh-based D M Hall to use the SecureMove Home Report, an innovative residential condition survey report that carries a one-year hidden defects warranty which has established a strong reputation in the market. The SecureMove Home Report was the first such product to be awarded the Crystal Mark by the Plain English Campaign for its terms and conditions.

SecureMove has also agreed to dispose of its commercial and residential surveying operations in Scotland to D M Hall for a nominal consideration. SecureMove's Scottish operations had an annualised turnover of around £300,000.

Commenting on the agreement Steven Crawshaw, executive director of Bradford & Bingley plc with responsibility for SecureMove, said:

"We are delighted to grant our first licensing agreement for our SecureMove Home Report. This is the first in what I believe will be many similar licensing agreements we sign this year."
