ASX/News Release

Thursday 22 January 2004

SECOND AFRICAN INFRASTRUCTURE FUND ESTABLISHED BY MACQUARIE AND OLD MUTUAL ASSET MANAGERS

African Infrastructure Investment Managers (Pty) Limited (AIIM), a joint venture between Macquarie Bank and Old Mutual Asset Managers of South Africa, today announced the establishment and initial closing of a second private infrastructure fund.

The new African Infrastructure Investment Fund (AIIF) has raised R675 million ($125 million) from a range of leading South African institutional investors, with plans to raise additional funds over the coming six months.

The AIIM-managed AIIF will invest predominantly in South African infrastructure projects, including roads, airports, power, telecommunications, rail, ports, water and social infrastructure. AIIM assumed management of its initial South African Infrastructure Fund (SAIF) in mid-2000 and the fund closed fully committed with R800million ($150 million) under management in mid 2003. Through the success of SAIF, AIIM has positioned itself as the leading infrastructure equity investor in the African market, and is experiencing significant and attractive deal flow.

Cornerstone investors in the new AIIF include South African institutions such as The Old Mutual Life Assurance Company (South Africa) Limited and Standard Corporate and Merchant Bank. Other investors at the first closing include Metropolitan Life Limited, Eskom Pension and Provident Fund and Stanlib Asset Management Limited. The Fund is a 15 year closed end fund and is seeking to raise further commitments from prospective and existing investors by mid 2004.

Gavin Kerr, Managing Director of AIIM, said AIIF is the second specialised infrastructure equity fund in South Africa managed by Macquarie. It provides domestic investors with an opportunity to benefit from the unique characteristics of infrastructure as well as an opportunity to invest in a range of infrastructure projects which will make a significant contribution to regional infrastructure and economic development.

“Infrastructure investment represents stable and long term growth for South African investors. There are a number of exciting projects in various stages of development in South Africa and the rest of Africa, including a number of privately funded toll road, power, port and airport projects. We anticipate that a growing proportion of South Africa's infrastructure expenditure will be privately financed over the next 10 years. As a result we anticipate significant continued interest in investing in the Fund,” Mr Kerr said.

Macquarie has substantial infrastructure funds under management, with over $16 billion invested in infrastructure assets worldwide. Infrastructure investments managed by Macquarie include assets in the transportation, water, telecommunications and energy sectors.

Macquarie-related infrastructure funds launched and sourced in foreign markets to date:

- Korean Road Infrastructure Fund (KRIF) - Korea's first private infrastructure fund, established through a joint venture between Macquarie Bank and Shinhan Financial Group. KRIF announced it had received commitments of Won 640.2billion ($714 million) in January 2004 from predominately Korean institutional investors;
- South Africa Infrastructure Fund (SAIF) – managed since mid 2000 through a joint venture between Old Mutual Asset Managers in South Africa and Macquarie. The ZAR800 million ($150 million) SAIF fund has to date invested in three privately funded highway projects in South Africa and a number of other infrastructure projects in the rail, airports and telecommunications sectors.
- Macquarie Essential Assets Partnership (MEAP) - Canada's first private infrastructure partnership investing in essential infrastructure assets was established in May 2003 and has now achieved total commitments of $C330 million ($339.0 million).

Old Mutual Asset Managers (OMAM) of South Africa is responsible for the management of R200 billion ($36 billion) of Old Mutual's on balance sheet assets and a further R75 billion ($14 billion) of assets on behalf of third party clients. OMAM is a leader in the development of privately funded infrastructure in the African market with a total of R2 billion ($360 million) invested in infrastructure assets in the form of debt and equity. OMAM has been an active investor in African infrastructure since 1998 and has experience across a range of infrastructure sectors. Investments include the Beitbridge to Bulawayo railway, South African toll roads, and a pan-African mobile telephone operator.
