Overview

Sage is a leading supplier of accounting and business management software to small and medium-sized businesses ("SMEs"). Our expanding range of products and services includes accounting, payroll, fixed assets and HR management software; customer relationship management ("CRM") software; e-business products and services; and specialised software solutions for the manufacturing, distribution, construction, real estate and non-profit sectors.

The strength of our brands, the breadth of our product range, the resilience of our business partner channel and the sheer scale of our customer base continue to provide us with competitive advantage and a platform for sustained long-term growth. We remain committed both to seeking out new ways to manage our existing businesses better and to continuing the international expansion of the Group through acquisition.

Organic revenue growth will be derived from a number of activities: firstly, by attracting new customers to the Sage product range; secondly, by encouraging more of our customers to subscribe to and retain support contracts; thirdly, by selling additional products to existing customers; and finally, by marketing an expanding range of industry-specific software solutions to our customer base.

63 Financial Calendar

We are pleased to announce results which show earnings growth of 11%*. During the year we have made further progress in generating more revenue from our customer base, which now numbers over 3.6 million. We have also continued our acquisition strategy, completing three significant acquisitions (two of them after the financial year-end), which have opened up new markets and further growth opportunities.

Market trends

Sage serves the market for accounting and business management software solutions for small and medium-sized businesses ("SMEs"). In this market, solutions designed to fit SMEs' specific requirements are delivered through local distribution channels, including value-added resellers.

During the year, the market has continued to exhibit three broad characteristics.

SMEs have continued to exercise caution in their spending on information technology. As a consequence, we have seen no significant change in spending on software.

Larger SMEs, who might in a better economic climate replace their solutions, are increasingly focussing on extracting greater value from their existing solutions. Consequently they have invested in upgrades and complementary products. The market serving smaller SMEs is more stable, since newly formed businesses continue to automate their business processes for the first time.

SMEs generally have continued to spend strongly on services related to their software, which are often critical to efficient accounting and business processes.

Those larger SMEs replacing their solutions are increasingly seeking to purchase systems for a number of their business processes, rather than just for accounting. Often, the solutions they require are industry-specific. The market penetration of industry-specific business solutions is still relatively low.

Sage approach to the market
Our response to these economic and market trends has been as follows.

Software

Recognising that many of our customers are seeking to enhance rather than replace their existing solutions, our upgrade programmes introduce appropriate new features and enhancements for all customers. 373,000 existing customers purchased upgrades during the year. As a result, upgrade revenues grew 10% and represented 37% of software revenues.

For those of our customers seeking to replace their solutions, we have developed appropriate migration programmes based on our broad product portfolio. 49,000 existing customers purchased new software during the year. As a result, revenues from the sale of new licences to existing customers represented 12% of software revenues.

It is one of our key priorities to attract large numbers of new customers to the Group. Continued investment in our products, brands and marketing programmes resulted in the recruitment of 182,000 new customers during the year, excluding acquisitions.

Support
95% of our customers have less than 100 employees and as a consequence very few of them have in-house IT expertise. Instead they look to Sage to provide support. Since many of our customers are seeking to derive greater value from their existing solutions, we are providing higher tiers of service within our support contract offerings. These were purchased by 250,000 of our support customers during the year. Support revenues grew 8% in the year.

Industry-specific solutions
During the year, we introduced a number of new solutions tailored for particular industries, including manufacturing, construction and distribution. These solutions were introduced through internal product development and through acquisitions. We now serve over 160,000 of our customers with industry-specific solutions. As a result revenues from industry-specific solutions were 11% of revenues.

Competitive position

We continue to perform strongly against our competitors by leveraging the key strengths of our business. In a market where a substantial proportion of revenues comes from existing customers, our customer base of over 3.6 million SMEs is an important source of revenue opportunities. Our range of localised solutions, expanded by acquisitions, meet the requirements of SMEs by incorporating local business practices and legislation. Our solutions are delivered by an established community of local business partners and backed up by a local support service. We have a product portfolio which meets the needs of both small and large SMEs and which is continuously developed, not only through acquisitions but also using feedback from the 21,000 customer support calls that we receive each day. These features will continue to differentiate us from our competitors and are at the core of our growth strategy.

Operational review

UK
UK revenues grew 3% and represented 29% of Group revenues. Revenue growth was generated by sales to smaller SMEs, particularly through sales of upgrades and support to existing customers. The operating margin increased to 40%, from the prior year's 37%, reflecting increased revenues from existing customers and also the benefit of the prior year's re-organisation of the mid-market division. UK operating profit grew 12%.

While improving its operating margin, the UK business has continued to invest in its product portfolio. Its migration programme, targeted at smaller SMEs, has been strengthened by the introduction of new products, increasingly addressing the needs of SMEs in specific industries.

Mainland Europe
Economic conditions in Mainland Europe were the most challenging of all our markets and were exacerbated by falling demand in the aftermath of the transition to the euro. However, acquisitions enabled revenues to grow by 4% and Mainland Europe represented 24% of Group revenues.

In these conditions, many of our competitors saw a steep decline in business. By contrast, our businesses remained highly profitable, as we were able to take advantage of the sales opportunities that remain within our large customer base. Furthermore, we continued to invest in upgrade programmes and in developing support services for our customers.

Businesses acquired in the year contributed low initial margins and therefore overall margins fell to 22% (2002: 24%).

The US business has been built through a series of acquisitions, which have created a large product portfolio and a customer base spanning small and large SMEs. During the year, considerable progress was made in consolidating the US businesses into two divisions, one addressing smaller SMEs and one addressing larger SMEs. The centralisation of certain back-office functions, together with a cohesive approach to our customers and business partners, ensures we continue to build on our strong market presence in the US.

Acquisition activity

Our acquisition strategy remains core to our approach to the market. We acquire businesses not only to enter new territories, but also to expand our offer in territories where we already have a presence. The acquisition of businesses with well-established brands and customer bases provides opportunities to sell more products and services and so improve profitability.

We have made significant progress in our acquisition strategy through one major acquisition during the year, and two further acquisitions after the end of the year. In total, our acquisitions over the year and up to present represent a £177.4m investment in future growth, supported by our strong operating cash flows.

Timberline, acquired in September 2003 for an enterprise value of £55.9m, has expanded our US industry-specific offer into a further important market: the construction and real estate sector. We have 150,000 customers in the US construction and real estate sector already using our software. Many of these businesses represent excellent prospects for the Timberline product and we will develop programmes to facilitate migration to this higher-value solution. This acquisition contributed revenues of £1.6m in the period and made an operating profit of £0.5m.

Our acquisition of Grupo SP in October 2003, for an enterprise value of £49.1m, established a leading position in the attractive Spanish market. SP specialises in providing solutions for smaller businesses. It is our intention to sell additional products to SP's customer base and also to extend SP's presence to address the needs of larger SMEs by selling more sophisticated solutions.

With the acquisition of Softline, completed in November 2003, for an enterprise value of £94.9m, we gained market-leading positions in South Africa and Australia. Softline has well-established brands and large customer bases. We will use our expertise to sell more products and services to Softline's customers.

In the accounting business, revenues were driven by our core accounting range, where our investment is focused, and in particular by Peachtree's 9% growth. Our core product range represented 80% of accounting revenues. The balance of revenues came from our legacy products, where we actively seek to migrate customers to core products. With lower investment, these products continue to provide strong profit contributions.

The CRM business performed particularly well, due to the success of its upgrade programme, which introduced compelling new features for customers of the ACT! contact management product. In this expanding market, we continue to make significant investments in both marketing and product development.

The two acquisitions completed after the end of the year added over 400,000 customers to the Group, bringing our customer base to over 3.6 million businesses.

In addition, we made a number of small acquisitions during the year, principally Concept Group in France, acquired in January 2003 for an enterprise value of £5.0m. This business provides complementary treasury and consolidation software for SMEs. This acquisition will provide stimulus to cross-selling initiatives, increasing the breadth and value of the solutions offered to our customers. Concept contributed revenues of £6.5m in the period and made an operating profit of £0.4m.

We will grow these businesses by using our customer base marketing expertise not only to sell more products and services to the new customers, but also to sell the acquired products to existing Sage customers. We expect to make further acquisitions as part of our response to the market trends noted above.

Our people

On 31 May 2003, Graham Wylie, Managing Director of UK operations and one of the co-founders of Sage, retired from the Board. The directors would like to thank Graham for his contribution to the business over the past 22 years.

We place significant emphasis on attracting, developing and retaining our people. The decentralised manner in which we manage our global network of businesses is based on nurturing the entrepreneurship and creativity of our employees. It is their understanding of local customers that enables our businesses to develop products and services appropriate for the marketplace. Our employees have also played an important role in maintaining and improving our levels of local customer service, for which we have won numerous industry awards. We thank all our people for their contribution to the year's performance.

Outlook

Revenue from services has proven more resilient than the sale of software in the weak economic conditions experienced during the year and consequently we expect this part of the business to deliver continuing growth.

Spending by smaller SMEs has demonstrated less dependence on macro-economic conditions than spending by larger SMEs. Demand from our small business customers is relatively predictable and therefore we expect this segment of our business to continue its growth. Sales to larger SMEs have been more sensitive to economic conditions, but we will continue to grow this part of the business through strong execution of marketing programmes for our expanded product and service range.

The Group is therefore positioned to deliver growth in unchanged economic conditions. Growth would be higher in the event of improved conditions since larger SMEs would seek to replace their solutions. The Group's largely fixed cost base means that a significant proportion of incremental revenues will translate into profit growth.

The start to the new financial year has been encouraging and, with significant earnings enhancement expected from our recent acquisitions, the Board views 2004 with confidence.

At Sage, we believe that small businesses need business management solutions that are designed to suit their local business environment. We continue to see accounting practices, tax legislation and business processes vary profoundly across different geographies. For example, the approach to structuring a chart of accounts in France is impacted by legal requirements whereas a book-keeper in the UK faces no such regulation and is comparatively free to organise accounting records according to internal requirements. Similarly the working of the value added tax regime in Europe significantly differs from the state tax requirements of the US. These and many more examples convince us that, at the SME level, locally developed solutions best meet the needs of our customers.

To respond effectively to these local needs, Sage's regional businesses have a high degree of autonomy. Local management makes the relevant decisions about product development and marketing and provides the support services required by our customers. Our global network of 17,000 business partners is also critical in delivering our local solutions. We believe that this localised approach to our markets gives our businesses a competitive advantage.

Our local businesses also benefit from being part of a global group of businesses, in which technological advances, best practice in customer service and marketing expertise can be effectively shared. We achieve this through the formation of 'virtual' teams comprising key management from our major businesses. These teams meet regularly to discuss and exchange proven examples of best practice in a given area of our business. Within our central Group function, our Business Development team is also focused on the identification and dissemination of best practice and on the co-ordination of group-wide technology initiatives.

We continue to extend our global network and expand our product offering by acquiring businesses, both in new territories and in territories where we already have a presence. The acquired businesses bring well-established products, brands, customer bases and channels to market. We have made significant progress in our acquisition strategy through one major acquisition during the 2003 financial year and two further acquisitions after the end of the year.

Key acquisitions, completed after the end of the year, extended our global reach to South Africa, Australia and Spain. While these businesses collectively have a strong base of over 400,000 customers, they are at a relatively early stage in selling extra products and services to their customers. The experience that other Sage companies have in selling support contracts, cross-selling complementary products and migrating customers up our product range will help these acquired businesses adopt new methods of selling to their customer bases, offering additional growth potential.

We believe that the combination of the scale and synergies of a global organisation and the knowledge and expertise of our local businesses, provides us with a significant advantage in the marketplace.

Each year, many thousands of SMEs introduce business management software to automate business processes. They do this for many reasons. They may want to improve working capital management by invoicing more promptly and tightening credit control procedures. They may face changing regulations and want to ensure compliance through the automation of data collection. We see them taking the first step towards automating business processes at an early stage in their development and so find that the majority of our new customers come from the large number of new businesses formed each year in our markets.

To meet this demand, Sage has developed a complete suite of solutions ranging from book-keeping software suitable for small SMEs to business management software solutions for larger SMEs with up to hundreds of employees.

It is one of our priorities to sell this range of products to large numbers of new customers each year. We recognise that, initially, many of these customers spend only modest sums on their software solution. However, we know that, if we work closely with such customers and help them get the most out of their software as their businesses develop, many will come to purchase more of our products and services. We therefore invest heavily in development, branding and marketing programmes throughout our product range. In attracting new customers we are supported by 47,000 accountants and 17,000 business partners who recommend and resell our products. The retail channel is also an important route to market for attracting very small businesses.

New Sage customers benefit from software products that are proven, reliable and enhanced every year with new and improved features.

182,000 customers purchased a Sage solution for the first time during the year. Acquisitions added a further 51,000 customers during the year and over 400,000 after the end of the year. For Sage, the value of attracting new customers lies not just in their initial spend on our software, but also on the further products and services that they buy throughout the rest of their lifetime.

With 95% of Sage's customers employing less than 100 people, it is not surprising that few can justify investment in dedicated in-house staff to look after their IT needs. Instead many of them look to Sage to provide this service.

Sage's customer service personnel are trained to be able to help customers overcome a variety of challenges. These challenges are often technical in nature; for example, customers seeking clarification on the use of a particular feature of our products. However customers also seek support over a broad range of issues outside of pure product support. For example, we advise customers about the potential impact of changing payroll legislation on their businesses, how to account for certain transactions or how to produce business forecasts.

The quality of our support service is critical to developing an enduring relationship with our customers. We take over 20,000 calls a day from our customers which provides us with a profound understanding of their needs. This insight shapes the future developments of our products and provides strong opportunities to sell further products and services to our customers.

In response to the needs of many of our customers for personalised and more comprehensive support, we have developed premium service versions of our support contracts, which we sold to 250,000 customers during the year.

To Sage, support services provide recurring, predictable revenues. During the year, Sage generated revenues of £271m from sales of more than 1 million support contracts.

The provision of high quality support is integral to the Sage business model, since it allows our customers to get more out of their Sage solution whilst also helping us to improve our products continually.

Meeting our customers' needs

At Sage, we recognise that our customers are constantly developing their businesses to manage new challenges and to take advantage of new opportunities. The changes in their businesses can take many forms. Some customers are managing strong growth in their businesses, others are diversifying into new product or geographic markets. Whatever the reason for change, they need to be sure that their internal systems can keep pace and continue to provide the business insight they require.

The breadth of our product range means that our customers can be confident that we will be able to continue to meet their needs as their businesses change and grow.

Upgrades

For those customers that want to get the best out of their current Sage product, our software upgrade programmes introduce appropriate new features and enhancements for each of our products. The stimulus for new features often originates from customer feedback. Frequent change in the fiscal and legislative environment also drives the continual enhancement of our products. 373,000 existing customers purchased upgrades during the year.

Up-selling

As a small business establishes itself and expands, its accounting and business processes become more complex. For example, it may start to export products and need to invoice in a foreign currency or it may open new outlets and so become multi-locational. It is changes of this nature that can lead a customer to replace its entry-level, book-keeping software with a more sophisticated business management solution. Our trained customer account managers are well placed to identify these needs and assist customers with the transition to new solutions that better serve their businesses.

Cross-selling

Many SMEs now have PCs throughout their businesses and are seeing the benefits of automating further parts of their business and linking accounts data to these other areas. To meet these emerging needs, Sage has expanded its suite of accounting products to serve more parts of our customers' businesses. For example we provide:

- Customer Relationship Management ("CRM") software; allowing a business to get a single view of all its interactions with each of its customers.

- Forecasting, Job Costing and Fixed Asset tracking tools; enabling accounts data to be analysed in order to improve business planning and control.
- Human Resources solutions; enabling businesses to streamline HR administration and link it to payroll processes.

Our extensive dialogue with our customers enables us to identify those businesses that need to replace or expand their existing software. We then help those customers migrate to a suitable solution from our broad product range, often engaging a local business partner to install and tailor the software to their requirements. During the year, 49,000 of our customers migrated to new solutions as a result of up-selling and cross-selling.

Sales of software to existing customers, through upgrades and migrations, generated £109m of revenue during the year. Meeting our customers' needs through these initiatives not only increases the satisfaction and loyalty of our customers but also makes an important contribution to our ongoing revenues.

Focusing on industry solutions

Businesses in different industries have different information needs and manage their business processes in different ways. In recent years, SMEs have shown an increasing demand for software tailored to the requirements of the industry in which they operate.

As an alternative to generic ("horizontal") solutions, which for some SMEs are not the best fit, Sage offers industry-specific ("vertical") solutions for those industries where the needs of SMEs are most specialised. These solutions enable SMEs to optimise their business processes rather than adapting them to conform with standard software.

Our vertical solutions range from extensions to our generic entry-level software to more complete solutions for larger SMEs. Our current vertical offerings cover the following industry sectors:

- Manufacturing
- Construction
- Real Estate
- Distribution
- Accountancy
- Not-for-profit (charities, schools, hospitals, etc.)

There are compelling reasons for focusing on these sectors. We know that many thousands of our 3.6 million customers are engaged in these industries. Today, the vast majority of them use our horizontal solutions whilst our research indicates that many would prefer to use a solution designed specifically for their industry backed by Sage's standards of customer support. Furthermore, our research of these sectors has identified a number of unique needs that are inherently not addressed by horizontal software. For example, a construction company has to ensure it complies with the tax legislation associated with the use of sub-contractors. Similarly a charitable institution often needs to confirm that donations received have been routed to designated beneficiaries. We believe that these unique requirements make tailored solutions highly appealing to many of our customers.

We considerably strengthened our vertical offering during the year, both by building new products and by acquiring vendors of vertical solutions:

- In the US, we acquired Timberline, a business serving the US construction and real estate sectors.
- We launched a series of extensions to our Peachtree product, for small SMEs in the US manufacturing, distribution, not-for-profit and accountancy sectors.

- In the UK, we acquired products for the construction and manufacturing industries, which we are now offering as additional modules for our generic accounting package.
 - In Germany, we acquired the Primus range of products for builders and craftsmen.
- Of a total of 1.3 million of our customers operating in our six focus industries, we now serve 160,000 customers with an industry-specific solution. We will continue to invest in developing and marketing these products so that more of our customers, both new and existing, will be able to benefit from Sage vertical solutions.

Financial Review

Overview

In the year ended 30 September 2003, turnover increased by 2% to £560.3m (2002: £551.7m). Operating profit rose by 8% to £155.9m (2002: £143.7m*) reflecting an operating margin of 28%. Profit before taxation increased by 12% to £151.0m (2002: £135.2m*) and basic earnings per share grew by 11% to 8.16p (2002: 7.32p*). These results include a charge of £2.0m for the loss on disposal of a non-core division in May 2003. The impact of the year on year movement in exchange rates was to decrease turnover by £11.9m and operating profit by £2.2m, mainly due to the strengthening of sterling against the US dollar. Accordingly, on a constant currency basis, turnover increased by 4% and operating profit increased by 10%*.

Revenue analysis

Revenue can be analysed between the sale of licences (both as part of an initial sale and upgrade or enhancement of an existing software system) and the sale of other products and services – principally support contracts, training and business forms – to existing customers. On a constant currency basis new licence sales were 1% ahead of prior year whilst other products and services revenue grew by 6%. Other products and services revenue contributed 60% to total revenue (2002: 59%), with support revenue alone contributing 48% to total revenue (2002: 46%).

Geographical contributions

In the year ended 30 September 2003, the US contributed 47% of Group turnover; the UK 29%; France 17% and Germany and Switzerland 7%.

Whilst the US continues to represent the largest market for Sage in revenue terms, the UK remains the most profitable business contributing 41% of operating profit (2002: 40%). The UK's operating margin increased to 40%, from the prior year's 37%, reflecting increased revenues from existing customers and also the benefit of the prior year's re-organisation of the mid-market division.

Economic conditions in Mainland Europe were the most challenging of all our markets and were exacerbated by falling demand in the aftermath of the transition to the euro. However, acquisitions enabled revenues to grow on a constant currency basis by 4%.

Overall US revenues on a constant currency basis grew by 4%. The accounting business grew revenues by 2%, while the CRM business grew revenues 13%, both on a constant currency basis. Overall US operating margins grew to 23% (2002: 21%), led particularly by the improvement of CRM margins to 18% (2002: 14%).

Overall Group operating margins were 28% for the year (2002: 26%*).

Taxation, attributable profits, dividends and earnings per share

A tax charge has been provided on 2003 profits at an effective rate of 31% (2002: 31%). This is higher than the standard rate of tax in the UK as profits earned outside the UK are taxed at higher rates.

Profit attributable to shareholders was £83.1m (2002: £69.9m), after providing for ordinary dividends of £21.1m (2002: £19.1m). Total dividends comprise an interim payment of 0.555p per share, paid in June 2003 and 1.095p per share proposed as a final dividend, taking the proposed full year dividend to 1.650p per share (2002: 1.500p per share).

Basic earnings per share of 8.16p covered the ordinary dividend 5 times and grew 11%* on last year.

Cash flow, net debt and acquisitions

Cash generation continues to be strong across the Group with £183.8m of operating cash flow generated in the year. After interest, tax and dividends, this gave free cash flow of £127.9m. Acquisitions were completed in the period for a cash cost of £76.1m. Acquired businesses held £9.9m of cash upon acquisition and debt of £0.5m. After net capital expenditure of £40.6m, payments in respect of prior period acquisitions of £7.2m and other movements of £8.8m, net debt stood at £110.6m at 30 September 2003 (30 September 2002: £132.8m).

The acquisitions of Softline and Grupo SP, completed after the year-end, for a total enterprise value of £104.0m, were financed by a combination of additional debt and cash held in the business.

Balance sheet

Capitalised goodwill arising from acquisitions increased by £69.8m in the year resulting in a goodwill asset of £900.7m at 30 September 2003 (2002: £830.9m). The directors consider this asset to represent the aggregate value of acquired customer bases, channels to market, brands and technology – intangible assets which, for the acquisitions made, are expected to increase in value over time. Accordingly no charge for amortisation of goodwill is provided in these accounts.

Capital commitments

As stated in last year's annual report, during 2002 the UK business commenced construction of a new facility to house the majority of its employees. The total cost of the facility is estimated to be £72m and completion is scheduled for May 2004. During the year ended 30 September 2003 capital expenditure was £36m (2002: £8m). At 30 September 2003 the Group had contracted capital commitments over the next 9 months of £28m in connection with this project.

Treasury

Facilities, cash management and gearing During the year the Group repaid $50m of its $250m term loan, the remainder of the loan amortising over the period to 27 March 2006. In addition, the Group's $250m multi-currency revolving credit facility remains in place. This facility also expires on 27 March 2006. At 30 September 2003 £51.8m ($86.0m) had been drawn under this revolving facility leaving £98.7m ($164.0m) unutilised.

At 30 September 2003 the Group also had $24.0m (£14.4m) of senior notes issued to the US private placement market.

During the year a new facility of £60m was taken out to fund the capital expenditure relating to the premises under construction in the UK. At 30 September 2003 £21.5m was drawn under this facility leaving £38.5m unutilised.

With the exception of the £60m facility referred to above, the Group's debt facilities have been used to finance acquisitions. Group cash balances are invested for appropriate periods with institutions with high credit ratings.

Gearing remains at prudent levels, with the net debt to EBITDA (earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation) ratio below 0.7 and with net interest covered by operating profit 32 times.

Hedging strategy

Whilst a substantial proportion of the Group's revenue and profit is earned outside the UK, subsidiaries generally only trade in their own currency. The Group is therefore not subject to any significant foreign exchange transactional exposure. The Group's principal exposure to foreign currency therefore lies in the translation of overseas profits into sterling. This exposure is hedged to the extent that these profits are offset by interest charges in the same currency, arising from the financing of the investment cost of overseas acquisitions by borrowings in the same currency.

The Group treasury management policy provides that the Group will seek to fix interest rates on a proportion of its debt when market conditions make this desirable. At 30 September 2003 interest rates were fixed on the $24.0m (£14.4m) of senior notes issued to the US private placement market. Otherwise net debt was held at variable interest rates. In light of the nature and level of the exposures identified above, the Group does not hold any sophisticated financial instruments such as derivatives.

Post balance sheet events

On 24 October 2003 the Company announced that it had acquired Grupo SP, S.A., a leading provider of entry-level accounting software in Spain, for an enterprise value of £49.1m, to be paid in cash. SP had net cash of £6.6m upon acquisition, giving an equity value of £55.7m for the transaction.

On 14 November 2003 the Company completed the acquisition of the business and assets of Softline Limited ("Softline"); a company listed on the JSE Securities Exchange South Africa. The acquisition was for an equity value of £66.0m, to be financed using the Company's existing debt facilities. Softline had net cash of £11.1m as at 31 March 2003, giving an enterprise value of £54.9m. Softline is a leading provider of business management software in South Africa and Australia.

Directors' Report

The directors present their report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2003.

Principal activities

The Group's principal activities during the year continued to be the development, distribution and support of business management software and related products and services for medium-sized and smaller businesses.

Review of business

The Group achieved a profit on ordinary activities before taxation of £151,037,000 on a turnover of £560,345,000. A review of operations of the Group during the year and an indication of future prospects are contained in the Chairman's and Chief Executive's Review on pages 2 to 5.

Results and dividends

The trading results for the year, dividends paid and proposed, and the amount transferred to reserves are set out on page 34.

The Board proposes a final dividend of 1.095p per share (2002: 1.343p per share) taking the proposed full year dividend to 1.650p per share (2002: 1.500p per share).

Research and development

During the year, the Group invested £57,979,000 in research and development (2002: £57,825,000). This has resulted in a number of new products and features as referred to in the Chairman's and Chief Executive's Review on pages 2 to 5.

Charitable contributions

During the year, the Group made charitable contributions totalling £120,000. No political donations were made in the year.

Directors and their interests

A list of directors, their interests in the ordinary share capital of the Company and details of their options over the ordinary share capital of the Company are given in the Remuneration Report on pages 28 to 33. No director had a material interest in any significant contract, other than a service contract, with the Company or any of its subsidiaries at any time during the year.

Creditor payment policy

Given the international nature of its operations, the Group does not operate a standard code in respect of payments to suppliers. Subsidiary operating companies are responsible for agreeing the terms and conditions under which business transactions with their suppliers are conducted, including the terms of payment. It is the Group's policy that payments to suppliers are made promptly in accordance with these terms. Creditor days for the Group have been calculated at 40 days (2002: 41 days).

Substantial shareholdings

At 22 December 2003, the Company had been notified, in accordance with sections 198 to 208 of the Companies Act 1985, of the following interests in the ordinary share capital of the Company:

Deutsche Bank AG	10.82%
M & G Investment Management Limited	3.89%
The Capital Group Companies Inc.	3.62%
Legal & General Investment Management Limited	3.00%

Corporate Social Responsibility

The Group conducts its business with appropriate regard to the rights and interests of shareholders, employees and other stakeholders. The Board recognises the significance of social, environmental and ethical issues to the business of the Group. It receives reports at each Board meeting of relevant developments in these areas and of the policies adopted by the Group to meet those concerns. The Risk Committee, discussed at page 25 below, considers and identifies any risks to the business of the Group from these areas and reports on such risks to the Board.

The Group is committed to monitoring its corporate social responsibility policies in key areas, including environmental impact. Reports are received on a quarterly basis from the operating companies on key indicators, such as mix of the workforce by gender, ethnic origin and disability and the level of waste product recycled. Whilst specific targets in these areas have not yet been set, as monitoring develops the Board will, in conjunction with the operating companies, consider the setting of specific targets.

Whilst the Board considers that material risks to the Group from social, environmental and ethical issues are limited, given the nature of the business of the Group, it recognises the reputational risks that may arise from a failure to meet relevant concerns and, therefore, undertakes that policies are adopted in the key areas of employment, community and environmental matters to ensure that any such risk is limited. Examples of policies in these areas are given below.

Employment

The Group continues to give full and fair consideration to applications for employment made by disabled persons, having regard to their respective aptitudes and abilities. The policy includes, where practicable, the continued employment of those who may become disabled during their employment and the provision of training and career development and promotion, where appropriate.

The Group recruits, employs and promotes employees purely on the basis of their qualifications and suitability for the work to be performed. The Group is committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment, to establishing 'health at work' schemes and to applying employment practices which are sensitive to the needs of employees. The Group is committed to the training and development of its workforce.

The Group communicates openly with its employees by way of employee forums, corporate intranet facilities and satisfaction surveys and many employees are stakeholders in the business through participation in share option schemes. Because consulting and listening to our employees forms a key part of the creation of the Group's equal opportunities strategy, the Group has undertaken an extensive culture survey with the support of external consultants to understand better the views of its employees and the culture of the organisation.

Community

The Group is an integral and committed part of the communities in which it is based and is committed to developing that relationship. Close relationships with those communities have been fostered through participation in community initiatives and donations to Community Foundations.

In the UK, during the year, the Group has worked with a number of charities and organisations including the Tyne and Wear Community Foundation and the Newcastle Employment Bond (a scheme working with the local community to get the long-term unemployed back into work). The Group also runs an annual international soccer festival for young people.

Outside the UK, our businesses have also participated in a variety of community activities and made donations to local charities. PC equipment which is no longer needed by the Group is donated to charities and schools.

The Group promotes small business through numerous award schemes and free education and awareness seminars. During the year, our businesses won numerous awards for the quality of their customer service. Promoting the use of the internet in business has been an area of emphasis, particularly its use in the electronic filing of a range of mandatory government submissions. The Group's awareness of the importance of prompt payment to small business is demonstrated by its payment terms with customers and suppliers.

Environment

Although the Group's operations have minimal environmental impact, it is committed to ensuring that its operations have as little impact as is consistent with its business needs. The Group works to promote environmental care, to increase its understanding of environmental issues, and to spread environmental best practice throughout its business. Its waste materials are recycled, where possible, and waste paper is minimised by promoting paperless processes and downloadable software products. The Group has introduced policies to reduce the number of car users.

In the UK, the Group has developed a new environmental and waste management policy. Detailed plans for the implementation of these policies are being adopted during the 2003/04 financial year. As part of this policy it has undertaken a full environmental assessment of the impact on the local ecosystem of the new UK facility at Newcastle Great Park.

Outside the UK, similar environmental and waste management practices are followed.

Our UK business has produced its first Corporate Citizenship report for the year 2002/2003. This will be made available at its website at www.sage.co.uk during the current year. Our other businesses have committed to develop similar reports during 2003/04.

Annual General Meeting

Notice of the sixteenth Annual General Meeting of The Sage Group plc to be held on 4 March 2004 is set out on page 62. A form of proxy is enclosed for members who wish to use one. It should be returned so as to be with the Company's registrars no later than 11.00am on Tuesday 2 March 2004. Shareholders with internet access may register their voting instructions for the forthcoming Annual General Meeting via the internet. They may register their vote electronically by going to www.sharevote.co.uk. They will be required to key in the three security numbers printed on the form of proxy to access the voting site.

As well as the ordinary business of the meeting, resolutions will also be proposed to enable the directors to continue to use their existing power to allot unissued shares in the capital of the Company up to an aggregate nominal amount of £4,263,861 (representing one third of the nominal value of the Company's issued share capital) and to allot equity securities for cash up to an aggregate nominal amount of £639,579 (representing 5% of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company). The directors do not have any present intention of exercising these authorities other than in connection with the Group's employee share schemes.

Resolution 8 set out in the Notice of Meeting is to approve the Remuneration Report on pages 28 to 33. The Directors' Remuneration Report Regulations 2002 ("the Regulations") require that a report, prepared in accordance with the Regulations, is put to a vote of shareholders at the Annual General Meeting.

In accordance with the Company's Articles of Association Mr M E W Jackson, Mr P A Walker, Mr P S Harrison and Mr P L Stobart will be retiring at the Annual General Meeting, and, being eligible, will offer themselves for re-election.

Mr P A Walker, Mr P S Harrison and Mr P L Stobart have service contracts with the Company terminable on 12 months notice. Mr M E W Jackson has a contract for services with the Company for a fixed period of 2 years terminable by either the Company or Mr M E W Jackson within that two year period by 12 months or 1 months notice respectively.

Auditors

The auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, have indicated their willingness to continue in office, and a resolution that they be re-appointed will be proposed at the Annual General Meeting.

By Order of the Board

M J Robinson
Secretary
22 December 2003

Corporate Governance Statement

The Company and the Group are committed to high standards of corporate governance. The Board is accountable to the Company's shareholders for good corporate governance. This statement describes how the relevant principles of corporate governance are applied by the Company. Throughout the year the Company has been in compliance with the provisions set out in the Combined Code for Corporate Governance appended to the Listing Rules of the UK Listing Authority, unless otherwise indicated.

The Workings of the Board and its Committees

The Board

The Board currently comprises the non-executive Chairman, the Chief Executive, four other executive directors, three independent non-executive directors and another non-executive director. The roles of the Chairman and the Chief Executive are quite distinct from one another and are clearly defined in written terms of reference for each role adopted by the Board. The directors' biographies appear on page 16. These demonstrate that the directors have a range of experience and are of sufficient calibre to bring independent judgement on issues of strategy, performance, resources and standards of conduct, which is vital to the success of the Group. All directors are subject to re-election at least every three years.

The Board is responsible to shareholders for the proper management of the Group. Where it is considered appropriate, training is made available to directors. A statement of the directors' responsibilities in respect of the accounts is set out on page 27. The Board has formally adopted a schedule of matters specifically reserved to it for decision which is available to shareholders on request to the Secretary at the registered office.

All directors have access to the advice and services of the Secretary, who is responsible to the Board for ensuring that Board procedures are followed and that applicable rules and regulations are complied with. The Secretary ensures that the directors take independent professional advice as required. The appointment and removal of the Secretary is a matter for the Board as a whole.

The Board meets formally six times a year, reviewing trading performance, ensuring adequate funding, setting and monitoring strategy, examining major acquisition opportunities and reviewing regular reports to shareholders. In the year under review all directors attended all of these Board meetings other than one non-executive who was unable to attend one meeting. The non-executive directors have a particular responsibility to ensure that the strategies proposed by the executive directors are fully considered. To enable the Board to discharge its duties, all directors receive appropriate and timely information. Briefing papers are distributed by the Secretary to all directors in advance of Board meetings.

The members of the Board have evaluated the performance of the Board, its committees and individual members at meetings and also through the completion of detailed questionnaires which are reviewed and considered by the Chairman. Further details are set out under the heading "Revised Combined Code" on page 26.

Committees of the Board deal with certain specific aspects of the Group's affairs. Until this year, the roles of the Remuneration and Nomination Committees were combined in the Remuneration and Succession Committee. However, having considered the membership of this Committee, the Board decided to create separate committees with responsibility for the areas of remuneration and of succession. The Committees of the Board are, therefore, the Remuneration Committee, the Audit Committee and the Nomination Committee (details of all these committees are set out below).

Remuneration Committee

The Group's Remuneration Committee is chaired by Mr L C N Bury, and its other members are the other independent non-executive directors, Professor C J Constable and Mr T C W Ingram. The Committee meets at least twice a year. All members attended all the meetings in the year under review. The Chief Executive may, by invitation of the Committee, attend meetings (except when his own performance and remuneration are under review) but is not a member of the Committee. The Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Board, within agreed terms of reference, on the Company's framework of executive remuneration and its cost. The Committee determines the contract terms, remuneration and other benefits for each of the executive directors including share options, performance related bonus schemes, pension rights and compensation payments. Remuneration consultants advise the Committee. The Board itself determines the remuneration of the non-executive directors.

Details of the Company's policies on directors' remuneration are given in the Remuneration Report on pages 28 to 33, together with further details of the Remuneration Committee.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is chaired by Professor C J Constable, and its other members are the other independent non-executive directors, Mr L C N Bury and Mr T C W Ingram. It meets at least three times a year. All members attended all the meetings in the year under review. The Committee provides a forum for reporting by the Group's internal and external auditors. The Group Finance Director may, by invitation of the Committee, attend meetings but is not a member of the Committee. The Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing half-year and annual accounts before their submission to the Board and reviews the effectiveness of internal controls. The Audit Committee advises the Board on the appointment of external auditors and on their remuneration both for audit and non-audit work and discusses the nature, scope and results of the audit with the external auditors. The Audit Committee keeps under review the cost effectiveness and the independence and objectivity of the external auditors. In addition, the Audit Committee reviews the appointment, remuneration and utilisation of internal audit service which is currently outsourced to KPMG.

The Company's auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, also perform non-audit services for the Group (principally tax advice and due diligence in relation to acquisitions) over and above the external audit. The Audit Committee keeps this issue under review and is confident that the objectivity and independence of the auditors is not impaired in any way by reason of this further work.

To this end the Committee has put in controls to ensure that the independence of the external audit process is not compromised and that in the provision of non-audit services, the objectivity and independence of the external auditors is safeguarded. These controls are:

Monitoring of independence and effectiveness of the audit process – the scope, fee, performance and independence of the external auditor is considered annually by the Audit Committee, together with an evaluation of whether the external audit should be tendered. In addition, audit partners are rotated every five years, and a formal statement of independence from the external auditors is received each year.

Provision of non-audit services – executive management has the discretion to obtain taxation services from the external auditors without prior reference to the Audit Committee subject to regularly appraising the Audit Committee of the amount and nature of such fees. Other non-audit services may be undertaken by the external auditors subject to all projects expected to cost in excess of an amount set by the Audit Committee, being approved in advance either by the Chairman of the Audit Committee or by the full Audit Committee depending on the expected cost of the project.

Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee is chaired by the Chairman of the Board, Mr M E W Jackson and consists of the Chairman and the three independent non-executive directors, Mr L C N Bury, Professor C J Constable and Mr T C W Ingram. The Nomination Committee meets on an ad hoc basis as required. As the role of the Nominations Committee was until recently combined in the Remuneration Committee no meetings of a separate Nominations Committee took place in the year under review.

The Nomination Committee is responsible for a number of matters relating to the composition of the Board and its committees including proposing candidates for appointment to the Board, having regard to its balance and structure. Recruitment consultants are used to assist in the process.

Relations with shareholders

Communication with shareholders is given high priority. The Chairman's and Chief Executive's Review on pages 2 to 5 includes a detailed review of the business and future developments. A full Annual Report and Accounts is sent to shareholders. The Company also has a website (www.sage.com) which contains up to date information on Group activities and published financial results. There is regular dialogue with individual institutional shareholders, as well as presentations to analysts after the Company's announcement of the year-end and half-year results.

The Board uses the Annual General Meeting to communicate with private and institutional investors and welcomes their participation. Details of resolutions to be proposed at the Annual General Meeting on 4 March 2004 can be found in the Notice of Meeting on page 62.

Internal control

The Board is responsible for the operation and effectiveness of the Group's system of internal controls. There is an ongoing process for identifying, evaluating and managing the significant risks faced by the Group. This process has been in place for the year under review and up to the date of approval of this report. It is regularly reviewed by the Board and complies fully with the Turnbull guidance.

The internal control systems are designed to meet the Group's particular needs and the risks to which it is exposed, and by their nature can only provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against misstatement or loss.

The effectiveness of this process has been reviewed by the Audit Committee, which reports its findings to the Board. The processes used by the Audit Committee to review the effectiveness of the system of internal control include discussions with management on significant risk areas identified and the review of plans for, and results from, internal and external audits.

The Audit Committee reports to the Board the results of its review of the risk assessment process. The Board then draws its collective conclusion as to the effectiveness of the system of internal control.

The key procedures, which the directors have established with a view to providing effective internal control, are as follows:

Indication of business risks

The processes to identify and manage the key risks to the success of the Group are an integral part of the internal control environment. Such processes, which are reviewed and improved as necessary, include strategic planning, the appointment of senior managers, the regular monitoring of performance, and control over capital expenditure and acquisitions.

The Company has formed a Risk Committee consisting of the Chief Executive, Group Finance Director, members of the Group finance team, the Secretary and representatives of the Group operating companies. A representative of KPMG, the internal auditors, may attend meetings of the Committee by request. The Committee reviews all business activities to identify the nature and extent of the significant risks facing the Group, undertakes risk review audits and considers the scope and results of audits undertaken by KPMG. It identifies significant internal control failings and weaknesses and agrees remedial action on such matters. The Risk Committee reports to the Board. Through the work of the Audit and Risk Committees, the Board is provided with a balanced assessment of the significant risks associated with the Group's operations and the effectiveness of the system of internal controls.

Quality and integrity of personnel

The integrity and competence of personnel is ensured through high recruitment standards and subsequent training courses. High quality personnel are seen as an essential part of the control environment.

Management structure

The Board has overall responsibility for the Group. Each executive director has been given responsibility for specific aspects of the Group's affairs. A clearly defined organisational structure exists within which individual responsibilities are identified and can be monitored.

The management of the Group as a whole is delegated to the Chief Executive and the executive directors. The conduct of Sage's individual businesses is delegated to the local executive management teams. These teams are accountable for the conduct and performance of their businesses within the agreed business strategy. They have full authority to act subject to the reserved powers and sanctioning limits laid down by the Board and to Group policies and guidelines.

Internal audit

The Group utilises internal audit resource supplied by KPMG to review compliance with procedures and assess the integrity of the control environment. Internal audit acts as a service to the businesses by assisting with the continuous improvement of controls and procedures. Actions are agreed in response to its recommendations and these are followed up to ensure that satisfactory control is maintained.

Budgetary process

A comprehensive budgeting system is in place, with annual budgets for all operating subsidiaries being approved by respective subsidiary boards and subsequently considered and, if appropriate, approved by the Board. Management information systems provide the directors with relevant and timely information required to monitor financial performance.

Investment appraisal (including acquisitions)

Budgetary approval and defined authorisation levels regulate capital expenditure. As part of the budgetary process the Board considers proposals for research and development programmes. Acquisition activity is subject to internal guidelines governing investment appraisal criteria, financial targets, negotiation, execution and post-acquisition management.

Statement by the directors on compliance with the provisions of the

Combined Code

The Company has been in full compliance with the provisions set out in Section 1 of the Combined Code throughout the year with the exception of the provision A.2.1 requiring the identification of a senior independent non-executive director (which the Board did not believe was necessary given that there is a non-executive Chairman) and A.1.2 being the existence of a formal schedule of matters specifically reserved for the Board. Mr L C N Bury has now been identified as the senior independent director and will be available, through the Secretary, to discuss any issues with shareholders, as appropriate. A schedule of matters reserved to the Board was adopted by the Board on 28 November 2002.

Revised Combined Code

The Board noted with interest the introduction in July 2003 of the Revised Combined Code (the "Revised Code") derived from a review of the role and effectiveness of non-executive directors by Derek Higgs and a review of Audit Committees by a group led by Sir Robert Smith.

The Revised Code applies for reporting years beginning on or after 1 November 2003 and, therefore, will apply for the first time to the Company for the financial year commencing 1 October 2004. However, the Company is committed to the application of the principles set out in the Revised Code and the adoption of the appropriate provisions of the Revised Code, or, where the Board considers that these provisions are inappropriate, to providing a clear explanation of why it does not comply.

The current position in relation to the adoption of the relevant provisions of the Revised Code is as follows:

- Provision A.1.2 of the Revised Code requires the Company to identify a senior independent director. The Board has appointed Mr L C N Bury to this role.
- The Chairman of the Board will hold meetings with the non-executive directors without the executive directors present as required by provision A.1.3 of the Revised Code. These meetings have been included in the agenda for the current financial year. In addition, the non-executive directors will meet without the Chairman present to appraise the Chairman's performance and on other occasions as deemed appropriate. These meetings have been included in the agenda for the current financial year.
- The Board has adopted terms of reference clearly identifying the division of responsibilities between the Chairman and Chief Executive. The terms are available to shareholders on request to the Secretary.
- Although the current Board complies with the main principle of the Revised Code in that it includes a balance of executive and non-executive directors so that no individual or small group of individuals can dominate the Board's decision taking, it recognises that under provision A.3.2 of the Revised Code it is recommended that at least half the Board, excluding the Chairman, should comprise non-executive directors determined by the Board to be independent. To that end, the Chief Executive and Chairman (as Chairman of the Nomination Committee) have commenced a strategy to identify and appoint suitable independent non-executive directors. External advisors have been appointed to identify suitable candidates with the intention of achieving the appointment of not less than two new independent non-executive directors by the end of the current financial year and to advise on further appointments thereafter.

- The Board conducted a review of its own performance at a series of meetings during the year ended 30 September 2003. It has now adopted a formal review procedure requiring the completion of detailed questionnaires by each individual member of the Board on the performance of the Board as a whole, its Committees and his individual performance. These questionnaires will be reviewed by the Chairman and by the Board as a whole. A discussion and evaluation of Board performance will also take place at the Strategy Conference attended each year by the Board.
- The Terms of Reference of the Remuneration Committee, Nomination Committee and Audit Committee are available on request from the Secretary at the registered office of the Company as required by the Revised Code.
- Under the Revised Code the Chairman should ensure that the views of the shareholders are communicated to the Board as a whole and he should discuss governance and strategy with major shareholders. In addition, non-executive directors should be offered the opportunity to attend meetings with major shareholders and should expect to attend them if requested by major shareholders. The Chairman ensures that shareholder communication and responses are discussed at each meeting of the Board and that all shareholders have access to the non-executive directors, through request to the Chairman or the Secretary.
- The Revised Code provides (D.1.1) that the senior independent director should attend sufficient meetings with a range of major shareholders to listen to their views in order to help develop a balanced understanding of issues of major shareholders. In his role as senior independent non-executive director, Mr L C N Bury will be available to shareholders to discuss issues of concern by request to him or the Secretary.

Going concern

The following statement has been included in accordance with the Listing Rules:

Based on normal business planning and control procedures, the directors have a reasonable expectation that the Company and the Group have adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. For this reason, the directors continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the accounts.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and the Group and of the profit or loss of the Group for that period.

In preparing those financial statements the directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and the Group and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and the Group and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Remuneration Report

This report sets out the remuneration policy and remuneration details of the executive and non-executive directors of the Company for the year ended 30 September 2003, as determined by the Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors ("the Remuneration Committee") and approved by the Board. The report has been prepared in accordance with the Directors Remuneration Report Regulations 2002 which introduced new statutory requirements for the disclosure of directors' remuneration in respect of periods ending on or after 31 December 2002. The report also meets the requirement of the Listing Rules of the UK Listing Authority and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended).

1. THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

1.1 Composition of the Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee consists solely of independent non-executive directors.

The Committee works within detailed terms of reference, copies of which are available on request from the Secretary. Its role includes the making of recommendations to the Board on policy for executives' remuneration, defining the remuneration packages of executive directors and approving the Board's Remuneration Report. The current members of the Remuneration Committee, who have been all the members of the Committee throughout the year, are Mr L C N Bury (Chairman), Professor C J Constable and Mr T C W Ingram.

1.2 Advisers to the Remuneration Committee

In order to be aware of market trends in remuneration and current best practice, the Remuneration Committee considers market data and research into remuneration policies in comparable businesses. In addition, the Remuneration Committee has received advice from Watson Wyatt, an international firm of remuneration consultants, appointed after consultation with the Board. Watson Wyatt are entirely independent of the Board and provide no services to the Group other than advice on executive remuneration to the Remuneration Committee. Ms K Geary (Human Resources Director, Sage UK) and Mr M J Robinson (Secretary) have provided advice or services to the Remuneration Committee that materially assisted it in its consideration of matters relating to directors' remuneration for the financial year and Mr P A Walker and Mr M J Robinson have, following the invitation of the Committee, attended certain of its meetings. However, they were not present at any meeting when any matter considering their own remuneration was discussed, nor did they advise in any way in relation to their remuneration.

2. REMUNERATION POLICY

2.1 Policy on Remuneration

The Remuneration Committee, in setting remuneration policy, recognises the need to be competitive in an international market. The Committee's policy is to set remuneration levels which ensure that the executive directors are fairly and responsibly rewarded in return for high levels of performance. Remuneration strategy is designed to support key business strategies and create a strong, performance-orientated environment. At the same time, the strategy must attract, motivate and retain talent. Accordingly, executive directors receive competitive base salaries comparable with companies of a similar size and international scope and have the opportunity to earn total remuneration in the upper quartile level for outstanding performance. In setting remuneration levels for the executive directors, the Committee takes account of the remuneration policy and practice applicable to other Group employees. The components of remuneration for executive directors comprise base salary (a fixed sum payable monthly which is reviewed annually in October), benefits (including car allowance and non-contributory health insurance), an annual bonus, share options and pension contributions. The components of remuneration other than base salary are not pensionable but are assessable to tax where the legislation so provides. Further details are given in respect of the year under review at paragraph 5.1 below.

The Remuneration Committee considers that a successful remuneration policy must ensure that performance-related elements comprise a significant part of the remuneration package. The policy adopted by the Committee ensures that a significant proportion of the remuneration of executives is aligned with corporate performance, generating a strong alignment of interest with shareholders. Performance-related elements for 2003 comprise share options and annual bonus. As stated above, through the combination of base salaries at competitive levels with performance-related elements ensuring that outstanding performance is rewarded by remuneration in the upper quartile, this alignment of interests is achieved.

In relation to the non-executive directors other than the Chairman, a basic fee is offered which is considered in accordance with market practice and which is sufficient to ensure that individuals of the appropriate experience, expertise and skill are attracted to the Group. To this basic fee are added additional fees for membership of the Board Committees and a further fee for Chairmanship of those committees. The fees as at the date of this Remuneration Report are a basic fee of £25,000 plus a fee of £4,000 for membership of each of the Remuneration and Audit Committee and £5,000 for chairing such Committees.

2.2 Policy on Share Options

The Sage Group 1999 Executive Share Option Scheme ("Executive Share Option Scheme") was adopted by the Company in 1999. Other than the all employee plans referred to below, the Executive Share Option Scheme is the only share scheme under which options are currently granted by the Company. Under the Executive Share Option Scheme, option grants are made to senior executives and managers across the Group, as well as to other staff with high potential or to recognise significant achievement. The annual grant is normally made after the declaration of the annual results.

Options under the Executive Share Option Scheme are granted at market value at the time of grant. Under the rules of the Executive Share Option Scheme, no option may be granted to an executive if the market value of the shares granted under that option, when aggregated with the market value of all shares granted under the Scheme and under any other Executive Share Option Scheme in the last ten years, would exceed eight times his or her remuneration at the date of grant. Options will generally only be granted over shares up to the value of 100% of base salary each year (not including bonus) except in exceptional circumstances such as a promotion or recruitment. Options will not be granted in any year to a value greater than 300% of salary and in the event that options are granted to a value greater than 100% of salary, the Remuneration Committee will impose additional performance criteria to those options, as appropriate, to ensure the conditions are more stretching than those which relate to grants equal to salary.

Details of grants of options to directors of the Company are set out in paragraph 5.2 below. As referred to above, except in exceptional circumstances, options will only be granted up to a value of base salary. The grant to Mr R Verni in the financial year under review was greater in value than his then salary, as this was the first grant to him since he became a director of the Company. Mr P L Stobart and Mr G S Berruyer each received a grant in excess of salary reflecting the changes in and development of their roles in the Group and the fact that no grant had been made in the previous year. Mr P S Harrison also received a grant in excess of salary, no grant having been made to him in the previous year. In these exceptional circumstances, and having regard to the amount of the grant (less than the value of salary and bonus), to Messrs Verni, Stobart, Berruyer and Harrison, the same performance conditions were applied to the whole of the grants. Options granted to directors of the Company in the grant period following the preliminary announcement on 2 December 2003 of the results of the Group for the year ended 30 September 2003 will be awarded up to the value of base salary.

Options granted to all directors of the Company and its operating subsidiaries throughout the Group under the Executive Share Option Scheme will normally be exercisable only if the percentage increase in the Company's earnings per share ("EPS") has exceeded the percentage increase in the Retail Prices Index by at least 3% each year in the three year period since grant i.e. by a total of 9%. If that target is not met at the end of the three year period, then those options will only be exercisable if EPS growth exceeds RPI by 12% over the four year period following the date of grant but, thereafter, no further retesting of the performance criteria will be undertaken. The Remuneration Committee believes that the EPS growth target for share options is appropriately demanding and will keep the target under review to ensure that it continues to be stretching. The Remuneration Committee considers that EPS growth is an appropriate performance measure, as it requires executives to produce sustained improvement in the underlying financial performance of the Group. Wherever used in this Remuneration Report, EPS refers to earnings per share before amortisation or impairment of goodwill, exceptional items and amounts written off investments. Options granted before 23 February 2000 under share option schemes of the Company other than the Executive Share Option Scheme were not subject to performance conditions as was commonly the case at that time.

In addition to the Executive Share Option Scheme, certain directors also participate in the Sage Group plc Savings Related Share Option Scheme ("the SAYE Scheme"). There are no performance criteria on the grant or exercise of options under the SAYE Scheme because this is an all employee plan where performance targets are not commonly imposed.

Mr G S Berruyer currently holds units granted under the Sage Plan d'Epargne d'Enlreprise ("PEE"), which is an all employee plan designed to enable French employees to acquire shares in the Company at a discounted price under terms comparable to those offered to UK employees under the SAYE Scheme. Authority for the PEE as an appendix to the SAYE Scheme was given by shareholders in 1996. Like the SAYE Scheme, there are no performance criteria imposed on the grant or exercise of options under the PEE because this is an all employee plan where performance targets are not imposed.

2.3 Policy on Bonus for Directors

The cash bonus in the case of executive directors and all employees is designed to reward outstanding performance. No payment of bonus will be made if the relevant operating company or Group performance falls below 80% of target (being the budget agreed by the Group Board) even if all other criteria for a bonus payment are met. The criteria for the award of the bonus are based on earnings per share (as to 25% of bonus), Group profit (as to 50% of bonus) and delivery of the strategic plan (as to 25% of bonus) as determined by the Remuneration Committee. In addition to the achievement of Group profit, the bonus payable to those executive directors of divisions of the Group will also reflect the performance of the division for which they have particular responsibility. Whilst bonus has historically been generally at a level of between 30% and 75% of salary for directors of the Company, the Remuneration Committee has determined a limit in all cases of 100% of base salary. Only in quite exceptional circumstances would a bonus of an amount in excess of 70% of base salary be achieved. Bonuses payable in respect of performance which is in accordance with targets set by the Committee will range between 30% and 70% of base salary. Payment of the bonus is made once final reconciliation of the year-end accounts is made.

2.4 Policy on Pensions

All the executive directors' pension arrangements are of the defined contribution type. The Sage Executive Pension Scheme is the main pension fund for Sage executives in the UK. It is a defined contribution plan where the standard contribution rate is 15% of base salary by the relevant company subject, where appropriate, to Inland Revenue limits.

2.5 Directors' contracts and termination payments

In relation to contracts with executive directors, the Company aims to set notice or contract periods at one year. If it is necessary to offer longer notice or contract periods to new directors recruited from outside the Group, it is the Company's policy to reduce these as soon as contractually possible after the initial period to a notice period of one year.

The Remuneration Committee seeks to ensure that any service contract of an executive director is terminable on not more than 12 months' notice. In the event that such a contract is to be terminated, the Board may stage any payments made to that executive over that notice period. The contracts of Mr P S Harrison, Mr P L Stobart, Mr P A Walker and Mr R Verni contain provisions allowing the Company to terminate the contract but make payments in lieu of notice at the same time as salary would have been paid throughout the 12 month notice period. As a result payments may cease if the executive takes employment elsewhere during that 12 month period. The contract for Mr G S Berruyer contains no such provision, as is usual in an employment contract subject to French law.

Non-executive directors are subject to election by shareholders at the first Annual General Meeting following their appointment and thereafter require re-election at least once every three years. Their appointments may be terminated without compensation in the event of them not being re-elected by shareholders or otherwise in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association. The appointment of the non-executives is for a fixed term of two years during which period the appointment may be terminated by the Board on notice, ranging from 6 to 12 months. Other than in the case of Mr T C W Ingram, each of the non-executive directors has entered into a contract for services on this basis, further details of which are set out in paragraph 3 below.

Executive directors are permitted, where appropriate and with Board approval, to take non-executive directorships with other organisations in order to broaden their knowledge and experience in other markets and countries. Mr P A Walker is currently a non-executive director of MyTravel plc and Diageo plc and Mr P L Stobart is a non-executive director of Plant plc and Capital & Regional plc. Fees received in their capacity as directors of these companies are retained by each of them reflecting the personal responsibility they undertake in these roles.

3. DIRECTORS' CONTRACTS AND COMPENSATION

All executive directors have service contracts which expire when the executive attains the age of 60 or may be terminated by the Company earlier for breach by the executive or otherwise by the Company by giving 12 months' notice. There are no pre-determined special provisions for directors with regard to compensation in the event of loss of office. Details of the contract of service or contract for services of each person who has served as a director of the Company at any time during the relevant financial year are set out below:

4. PERFORMANCE GRAPH

Total Shareholder Return ("TSR") against FTSE 100

The following graph shows, for the last five financial years of the Company, the total shareholder return on a holding of shares in the Company as against the average total shareholder return of the companies comprising the FTSE 100.

The FTSE 100 index is, in the opinion of the directors, the most appropriate index against which the total shareholder return of the Company should be measured because of the comparable size of the companies which comprise that index.

 - 4 Appointed 15 March 2002.
 - 5 Benefits in kind include the provision of a company car, car allowance, fuel and insurance.
 - 6 Retirement benefits were accruing to six directors (2002: six). All pension contributions accrued under money purchase schemes.
- No payments for compensation for loss of office or otherwise relating to termination of office or employment were made during the year.
 - Total directors' emoluments were £2,762,000 (2002: £2,314,000).
 - Including gains on share options, the total emoluments of the highest paid director were £4,780,322 (2002: £1,138,046).

5.2 Directors' Share Options

Details of options held by directors other than under savings related share option schemes are given below. The executive directors are responsible for administering the share option schemes in accordance with rules approved by shareholders in general meeting.

Under the provisions of the Executive Share Option Schemes, which comprise The Sage Group (No. 2) Executive Share Option Scheme and The Sage Group 1999 Executive Share Option Scheme, directors, managers and employees who are judged to have made a significant contribution to the Group's development to date and are considered to be likely to continue to provide an exceptional and continuing contribution to the realisation of strategic goals in the future, are granted share options in the Company. Options are now only granted under the rules of The Sage Group 1999 Executive Share Option Scheme, which state that no more than 7.5 per cent of the issued ordinary share capital in the Company may be made available for issue under any discretionary share scheme in any 10 year period.

Notes:

- No options were varied during the year.
- The performance criteria on which the exercise of share options exercisable only on or after 23 February 2003 are conditional are indicated in paragraph 2.2 above. In respect of any share options exercisable prior to that date no performance conditions apply.
- For each option exercised in the year, the market price of the exercised shares at the date of exercise was as follows: i) For those exercised by Mr G S Bernuyer (13 May 2003: 146.31p); ii) For those exercised by Mr P A Walker (11 June 2003: 173.46p).
- The market price of a share of the Company at 30 September 2003 was 164.25p and the lowest and highest market price during the year of each such share was 101.25p and 190.25p respectively.
- Total gains on the exercise of share options were £4,217,920 (2002: £692,324), including £4,217,920 (2002: £690,450) on executive share options.
- In accordance with the rules of The Sage Group (No. 2) Executive Share Option Scheme the appropriate Committee of the Board exercised its discretion to allow Mr A W G Wylie to exercise his outstanding options referred to above within one year of his retirement on 31 May 2003.

In relation to the SAYE Scheme, the outstanding options granted to each director of the Company are as follows:

Notes to the Accounts

For the year ended 30 September 2003

1 Accounting policies

a Basis of accounting

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Companies Act 1985 and applicable accounting standards in the United Kingdom. The true and fair override provisions of the Companies Act 1985 have been invoked as detailed in note (c) below. A summary of the more important Group accounting policies is set out below.

b Basis of consolidation

The financial statements of the Group comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries prepared to 30 September 2003. Subsidiaries acquired during the year are included in the Group financial statements using the acquisition method of accounting. Accordingly, the Group profit and loss account and statement of cash flows include the results and cash flows from the effective date of acquisition. No profit and loss account is presented for The Sage Group plc as permitted by Section 230 of the Companies Act 1985.

c Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the fair value attributed to investments in businesses or subsidiary undertakings over the fair value of the underlying net assets at the date of their acquisition. In accordance with FRS 10, for acquisitions made on or after 1 October 1998, goodwill has been capitalised as an intangible asset. Goodwill arising on acquisitions prior to that date was eliminated against reserves in accordance with the accounting standard then in force. If a subsidiary or business is subsequently sold or closed, any goodwill arising on consolidation that was eliminated against reserves or that has not been amortised through the profit and loss account is taken into account in determining the profit or loss on sale or closure.

The directors have concluded that they should evaluate the life of goodwill on a case by case basis, amortising goodwill in instances where a fixed life is considered appropriate. Goodwill which is not amortised, is subject to an annual impairment review. Goodwill capitalised on businesses acquired since 1 October 1998 has all been assessed as having an indefinite life. This is because the main intangible assets that the Group has acquired are customer bases, channels of distribution and brands. However none of these intangible assets qualify as a separable net asset under FRS 10, therefore they have not been accounted for separately.

Based on past experience, the directors consider that, taken together, these assets enhance in value over time. This results from better customer and channel management and brand development, which improves returns on acquired businesses.

The carrying value of this goodwill will continue to be reviewed annually for impairment and adjusted to the recoverable amount if required. In order to give a true and fair view the financial statements depart from the specific requirements of the company legislation to amortise goodwill over a finite period. The directors consider this to be necessary for the reasons given above. Because of the indefinite life of these intangible assets, it is not possible to quantify the impact of this departure.

Impairment review – The need for any goodwill impairment write-down is assessed by comparison of the carrying value of the asset against the higher of net realisable value or value in use. The value in use is determined from estimated discounted future cash flows.

The discount rate used in performing the impairment review is the Group's weighted average cost of capital which is currently 8%.

d Revenue recognition

Turnover represents amounts invoiced to third parties after deducting credit notes, allowances, trading discounts and sales tax. The Group derives revenue from software licences, postcontract customer support (PCS) and other products and services. PCS includes telephone support and maintenance updates. Other products and services include the sale of business forms and training.

Software licences – The Group recognises the revenue allocable to software licences and specified upgrades upon shipment of the software product or upgrade, when there are no significant vendor obligations remaining, when the fee is fixed and determinable and when collectability is considered probable. Where appropriate the Group provides a reserve for estimated returns under the standard acceptance terms at the time the revenue is recorded.

Postcontract customer support – Revenue allocable to PCS is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the PCS. Revenue not recognised in the profit and loss account under this policy is classified as deferred income in the balance sheet.

Other products and services – Revenue allocable to other products and services is recognised as the products are shipped, or services are provided.

e Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation on tangible fixed assets is provided for as follows:

Freehold buildings – 50 years
Long leasehold land and buildings – over period of lease
Plant and equipment – 15%–33.3% per annum on reducing balance
Fixtures and fittings – 15% per annum on reducing balance
Motor vehicles – 25% per annum on reducing balance

f Development costs and other intangible assets

All costs associated with the research and development of software are written off as incurred.

g Stocks

Stocks are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

h Leasing

Where assets are acquired by finance leasing arrangements which give rights approximating to ownership the amount representing the purchase price of such assets is included in tangible fixed assets and the related obligations are included as creditors. The interest elements of the rental obligations are charged in the profit and loss account over the period of the lease and represent a constant proportion of the balance of capital repayments outstanding. All other leases are classified as operating leases and the annual rentals are charged to the profit and loss account as incurred.

i Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency assets and liabilities are translated into sterling at rates of exchange ruling at the year-end. Trading results are translated at the average rate prevailing during the relevant period. Differences arising on the re-translation of the net investments and the results for the year are taken directly to reserves together with differences on foreign currency borrowings to the extent that they are used to finance or provide a hedge against Group equity investments in foreign enterprises. All other exchange differences are dealt with in the profit and loss account.

j Deferred tax

Deferred tax is accounted for under FRS 19, which requires a form of full provision for accounting for deferred tax, called the incremental liability approach. Deferred tax is provided on timing differences where the Company has an obligation to pay more tax in the future as a result of those timing differences. Deferred tax assets are only recognised if it is considered more likely than not that there will be suitable profits from which the future reversal of the underlying timing differences can be deducted.

As permitted by FRS 19, the Group has adopted a policy of not discounting deferred tax assets and liabilities.

k Pension schemes

The Group operates money purchase pension schemes for certain of its employees. The contributions are charged to the profit and loss account as incurred.

l Investments

Fixed asset investments are stated at cost less provision for any diminution in value.

2 Segment information

The directors consider there to be only one class of business being the development, distribution and support of business management software and related products and services for medium-sized and smaller businesses. Therefore, only geographical segment information is given below. The geographical analysis of turnover by destination is as follows:

Auditors' remuneration		539	518

Auditors' remuneration shown above includes £30,000 (2002: £21,000) in respect of the Company. Fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for non-audit services in the UK were £974,000 (2002: £430,000). These fees were attributable to taxation services and compliance work. Additional fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers worldwide (excluding the UK) for non-audit services were £910,000 (2002: £685,000). Of these fees £331,000 was attributable to due diligence work and the remainder to tax services.

The operating profit in the prior year is stated after the impact of the one-off £6m expense associated with the sponsorship of "The Sage Gateshead".

Further details on directors' emoluments can be found in the Remuneration Report on pages 28 to 33.

c Factors that may affect future tax charges

There are tax losses which have not been recognised for deferred tax purposes. If sufficient suitable profits arise in the future, then these losses could be utilised and hence reduce the future tax charge.

Similarly, there are potential tax credits which have not been recognised due to the uncertainty over their availability. If these credits become available, then this would also reduce the future tax charge.

A discussion of the Group's tax charge can be found in the Financial Review on pages 18 to 20.

7 Parent company financial statements

The amount of profit for the financial year before dividends within the accounts of the parent company is £67,455,000 (2002: £38,736,000). There is no material difference between the profits and losses as reported above and historical cost profits and losses, and there are no other gains or losses in the year.

Included in loans above and in note 14 is £186,634,000 (2002: £192,657,000) of unsecured loans (before unamortised issue costs) taken out in connection with acquisitions.

Of this sum, £14,449,000 (2002: £22,886,000) relates to Senior Notes, which were issued to the US private placement market. These notes are repayable in equal annual instalments from 2003 to 2005 and carry a fixed interest coupon of 6.77% per annum.

£172,185,000 (2002: £169,771,000) is drawn down under multi-currency credit facilities. The Group has two facilities, referred to as Facility A and Facility B, providing total funds of $450,000,000 (2002: $500,000,000).

- Facility A is a $200,000,000 (2002: $250,000,000) term loan with a fixed repayment profile through to 27 March 2006.
- Facility B provides $250,000,000 (2002: $250,000,000) on a revolving basis through to 27 March 2006.

At 30 September 2003 £120,409,000 was drawn down under Facility A and £51,776,000 drawn down under Facility B (2002: £158,932,000 and £10,839,000 respectively).

In addition to this, during the year a £60,000,000 facility was raised to fund the construction of the new UK facility. At 30 September 2003 £21,500,000 was drawn under this facility.

In the table above, loans are stated net of unamortised issue costs of £922,000 (2002: £1,317,000). The Company has incurred total issue costs of £3,480,000 (2002: £3,255,000) in respect of these facilities. These costs are allocated to the profit and loss account over the term of the facility at a constant rate on the carrying amount.

Under the above scheme, 298,340 1p ordinary shares were issued during the year for proceeds of £344,761.

In 2001 the Company established a qualifying employee share ownership trust ("Quest") in connection with its existing savings related share option scheme, which is open to all UK employees. Of the 298,340 shares issued during the year, 229,250 were subscribed for by The Sage Group Quest Company Limited at a market value of £296,306. These shares were allocated to employees, in satisfaction of options exercised under The Sage Group plc 1996 Savings Related Share Option Scheme. The Company provided £147,752 to the Quest for this purpose. The Company has transferred the cost of this contribution directly to the profit and loss account reserve.

The market price of the shares of the Company at 30 September 2003 was 164.25p and the highest and lowest prices during the year were 190.25p and 101.25p respectively.

Prior to acquisition the last full set of financial statements of Timberline was prepared for the year ended 31 December 2002 and showed a profit of US $1,757,000 after taxation and amortisation of capitalised software development costs.

The pre-acquisition results for Timberline for the period from 1 January 2003 to 19 September 2003 prepared under Timberline's accounting policies and principles prevailing prior to acquisition were as follows:

	US $'000
Turnover	44,255
Operating loss	(2,039)
Net interest receivable	145
Loss before taxation	(1,894)
Tax benefit	3,195

Independent Auditors' Report

PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS

Independent auditors' report to the members of The Sage Group plc

We have audited the financial statements which comprise the Consolidated Profit and Loss Account, the Consolidated Balance Sheet, the Consolidated Cash Flow Statement, the Consolidated Statement of Total Recognised Gains and Losses, the Reconciliation of Movements in Equity Shareholders' Funds, the Company Balance Sheet and the related notes. We have also audited the disclosures required by Part 3 of Schedule 7A to the Companies Act 1985 contained in the Remuneration Report ("the auditable part").

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

The directors' responsibilities for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and accounting standards are set out in the statement of directors' responsibilities. The directors are also responsible for preparing the Remuneration Report.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements and the auditable part of the Remuneration Report in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and United Kingdom Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. This report, including the opinion, has been prepared for and only for the Company's members as a body in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985 and for no other purpose. We do not, in giving this opinion, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing.

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and whether the financial statements and the auditable part of the Remuneration Report have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the directors' report is not consistent with the financial statements, if the Company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and transactions is not disclosed.

We read the other information contained in the annual report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements or material inconsistencies with the financial statements. The other information comprises only the Directors' Report, the unaudited part of the Remuneration Report, the Chairman's and Chief Executive's Review, the Financial Review and the Corporate Governance Statement.

We review whether the Corporate Governance Statement reflects the Company's compliance with the seven provisions of the Combined Code specified for our review by the Listing Rules of the Financial Services Authority, and we report if it does not. We are not required to consider whether the Board's statements on internal control cover all risks and controls, or to form an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's or Group's corporate governance procedures or its risk and control procedures.

Basis of audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and the auditable part of the Remuneration Report. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements and the auditable part of the Remuneration Report are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

In our opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and the Group at 30 September 2003 and of the profit and cash flows of the Group for the year then ended;
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985; and
- those parts of the Remuneration Report required by Part 3 of Schedule 7A to the Companies Act 1985 have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
