INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholder of
The Dratel Group, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of The Dratel Group, Inc. as of January 31, 2004. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit of the statement of financial condition provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Dratel Group, Inc. as of January 31, 2004 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION January 31, 2004

1. PRINCIPAL
BUSINESS
ACTIVITY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The Dratel Group, Inc. (the "Company") is registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as a broker-dealer and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the "NASD") and an associate member of the American Stock Exchange.

The Company is a nonclearing broker-dealer and is exempt from the provisions of rule 15c3-3 as all customers' accounts, as defined, are carried by the clearing broker.

This financial statement has been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which require the use of estimates by management.

Depreciation and amortization of property and equipment is provided for based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Such depreciation and amortization does not differ materially from that which would be recorded under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

2. DUE FROM CLEARING
BROKER:

The clearing and depository operations for the Company's security transactions are provided by one broker pursuant to a clearance agreement. At January 31, 2004, the receivable from the clearing broker represents cash maintained at the clearing broker and commissions receivable earned as an introducing broker for the transactions of its customers.

The Company has agreed to indemnify its clearing broker for losses that the clearing broker may sustain from the customer accounts introduced by the Company. As of January 31, 2004, no amounts were owed to the clearing broker by these customers in connection with normal margin, cash and delivery-against-payment transactions.

In the normal course of business, introduced customers maintain debit balances with the clearing broker. At January 31, 2004, these balances were fully collateralized by securities owned by the customers.

Also, in the normal course of business, customers may sell securities short. Subsequent market fluctuations may require the clearing broker to obtain additional collateral from the Company's customers. It is the policy of the clearing broker to value the short positions and to obtain additional deposits where deemed appropriate.

3. OFFICER'S LIFE
INSURANCE POLICY:

The Company is the beneficiary of an insurance policy on the Company's officer/stockholder. The policy's face value is $841,000.

THE DRATEL GROUP, INC.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION January 31, 2004

4. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT: Property and equipment consists of the following:

January 31, 2004		Depreciation Period
Furniture and equipment	$ 68,857	5 to 7 years
Leasehold improvements	73,682	31.5 years
	$142,539

5. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

The Company is obligated under noncancelable operating leases for office facilities, which expire at various dates through July 2004. The future aggregate amount payable for the leases for the year ending January 31, 2005 amounts to $9,786. These leases are subject to escalations for increases in the Company's pro rata share of real estate taxes and other expenses. Rent expense charged to operations amounted to $78,885.

On or about July 30, 2003, the Company was named in a NASD arbitration. Claimants allege that they lost $1,250,000 in accounts managed by the Company. The Company believes that the claims are wholly without merit. The Company is defending the case vigorously.

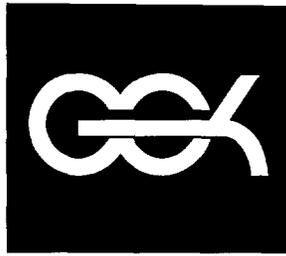

The Company is also involved in another issue, although to date no action has been filed against the Company. On May 29, 2003, the Company received a letter from an attorney representing an estate. The letter stated that the attorney had been retained by the estate to pursue claims for unspecified losses in the account of the decedent. The Company believes that all trading in the account was appropriate and that the claims are without merit. The NASD has informed the Company it does not intend to take any action.

6. INCOME TAXES:

The Company has recorded a deferred tax asset of approximately $123,000 at January 31, 2004, representing the tax effects of a net operating loss carryforward of $361,500 expiring in 2022. In recognition of the uncertainty regarding the ultimate outcome of income tax benefits, the Company has recorded a full valuation allowance.

7. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS:

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined, of the greater of $5,000, or 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change from day to day, but as of January 31, 2004, the Company had net capital of $52,745, which exceeded requirements by $47,745.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S
SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

GOLDSTEIN GOLUB KESSLER LLP

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Stockholder of
The Dratel Group, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of The Dratel Group, Inc. (the "Company") for the year ended January 31, 2004, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at January 31, 2004 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report recognizes that it is not practicable in an organization the size of The Dratel Group, Inc. to achieve all the divisions of duties and cross-checks generally included in a system of internal control and that, alternatively, greater reliance must be placed on surveillance by management.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
