Independent Auditor's Report

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Board of Directors
Legacy Securities Corp.:

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Legacy Securities Corp. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Legacy Investment Group, Inc.), as of February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Legacy Securities Corp. as of February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit as of and for the year ended February 29, 2004 was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, III, IV, and V is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

LEGACY SECURITIES CORP.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003

NOTE A--SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations: Legacy Securities Corp. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Legacy Investment Group, Inc. (the Parent), operating in Georgia as a Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) registered broker-dealer and a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD).

The Company is primarily engaged in investment banking and financial advisory services.

Cash and Cash Equivalents: The Company considers all cash and money market instruments with a maturity of ninety days or less to be cash and cash equivalents.

The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents at high credit-quality banks and brokerage firms. The balances at times may exceed federally insured limits

Investment in Marketable Securities: Investments in marketable securities are valued at market value. The resulting difference between cost and market (or fair value) is included in income.

Property and Equipment: Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided by use of straight-line methods over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred; major renewals and betterments are capitalized. When items of property or equipment are sold or retired, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is included in the results of operations.

Income Taxes: Income taxes are accounted for by the asset/liability approach in accordance with FAS-109 (Accounting for Income Taxes). Deferred taxes represent the expected future tax consequences when the reported amounts of assets and liabilities are recovered or paid. They arise from differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are adjusted for changes in tax laws and tax rates when those changes are enacted. The provision for income taxes represents the total of income taxes paid or payable for the current year, plus the change in deferred taxes during the year. The Company provides deferred taxes for net operating loss carryforwards and differences in the timing of deductions for book and tax reporting purposes principally related to depreciation. A valuation allowance is provided, if necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to a level which, more likely than not, will be realized.

The Company files a consolidated federal income tax return with the Parent. Taxes on income for the Company are recorded as though the Company were filing a separate return. The Company files separate state income tax returns.

LEGACY SECURITIES CORP.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003

Estimates: Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements.

Securities Transactions: Securities transactions are recorded as of the trade date.

Investment Banking Revenues: Investment banking revenues include fees from securities offerings in which the Company acts as an agent. Investment banking revenues also include fees earned from providing merger and acquisition and financial advisory services. Investment banking fees and sales commissions are recorded upon settlement. The underwriting fees are recorded at the time the underwriting is completed and the income is readily determinable.

NOTE B – MARKETABLE SECURITIES OWNED

Marketable securities owned, which were received as compensation for investment banking services, consist of the following:

	2004	2003
Common stock warrants	$ -	$ 17,863
Common stocks	15,000	51,555
	$ 15,000	$ 69,418

NOTE C--LEASE COMMITMENT

The Parent leases equipment and office premises under operating leases. During 2004, the Company paid one month of the rent arising from the Parent's office premises lease and during 2003, the Company paid most of the Parent's obligations under equipment and office space leases for the year.

A lease abandoned during 2002 and accrued at February 28, 2002 was subsequently settled during 2003 for approximately $44,000 less than the amount accrued at February 28, 2002.

Rent expense and sublease income were as follows:

	2004	2003
Rent expense	$ 10,704	$ 62,106
Sublease income	-	(37,347)
	$ 10,704	$ 24,759

LEGACY SECURITIES CORP.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003

NOTE D--NET CAPITAL

The Company, as a registered broker dealer is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At February 29, 2004, the Company had net capital of $7,619 which was $2,619 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000.

NOTE E--INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes is summarized as follows:

	2004	2003
Current income tax expense	$ 26,000	$ 108,000
Deferred income taxes (benefit)	(26,000)	(108,000)
Income tax expense (benefit)	$ _____	$ _____

The Company's deferred tax assets at February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003 are as follows:

	2004	2003
Deferred tax assets arising from net operating loss carryforward	$ 220,000	$ 194,000
Valuation allowance	(220,000)	(194,000)
Net deferred tax asset	$ _____	$ _____

The Company has recorded a valuation allowance for the deferred tax asset at February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003 because management believes that it is more likely than not that the net operating loss carryforward will not be realized.

At February 29, 2004, the Company has a net operating loss carryforward to future years, which may be used to offset future taxable income of approximately $970,000, which expires through 2024.

The Company utilized approximately $325,000 of net operating loss carryforwards during the year ended February 28, 2003.

LEGACY SECURITIES CORP.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003

NOTE F -- RELATED PARTIES

The Company has receivables and payables to its Parent and other subsidiaries of the Parent arising in the normal course of business. A receivable partially arising from the transfer of substantially all of the Company's assets and liabilities to its Parent during the fiscal year ended February 29, 2004 was reduced to its estimated realizable amount of $25,000 in the accompanying financial statements.

The Parent is the general partner in a limited partnership which held investments for some of the Company's employees and advisory directors. The investment held in this limited partnership was in an entity for which the Company has performed investment banking services. The Partnership was dissolved during 2004.

In April 2003, the Company executed a management agreement with its Parent. Under the agreement the Parent was to provide the Company with office facilities and certain other general and administrative support in exchange for management fees. Effective December 1, 2003, the management agreement was revised to require minimum management fees of $6,000 monthly which is the Company's estimated allocable portion of the salaries and other administrative costs of the consolidated group of companies.

The notes receivable from stockholders of the Parent arose from the purchase of common stock from the Company that it received from an investment banking transaction in 2002. The notes bear interest at 8% and are due on demand.

NOTE G -- PROFIT SHARING PLAN

The Company has a discretionary, contributory profit sharing plan covering substantially all employees. Under the plan, participants may elect to defer a portion of their annual compensation as contributions to the plan. Company contributions are made at the discretion of the management of the Company. The Company made no contribution to the plan for the years ended February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003.

NOTE H -- LITIGATION

At February 28, 2003, the Company and its Parent were defendants in a claim in which former employees of the Company sought, among other things, compensation for participation in investment banking transactions. The matter was settled during the year ended February 29, 2004 with no material adverse effect on the accompanying financial statements.

LEGACY SECURITIES CORP.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
February 29, 2004 and February 28, 2003

NOTE I -- CONCENTRATIONS

Substantially all of the investment banking revenues were earned from six customers in 2004 and six customers in 2003.

NOTE J – NET LOSS

The Company incurred an operating loss of $887,466 for the year ended February 29, 2004 and revenue for the year decreased by over 70%. In addition, the Company's Parent and other subsidiary had significant losses for the year ended February 29, 2004. Management expects the Company to continue as a going concern and the accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going-concern basis without adjustments for realization in the event that the Company ceases to continue as a going concern.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY RULE 17a-5

To the Board of Directors
Legacy Securities Corp.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Legacy Securities Corp. for the year ended February 29, 2004, we considered its internal control structure, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including test of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by Legacy Securities Corp. that we considered relevant to the objective stated in Rule 17a-5(g). We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedure for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company related to the following: (1) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13; (2) in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; and (3) in obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at February 29, 2004 to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.
