To the Board of Directors
Holladay Stock Transfer, Inc.

I have examined management's assertion that Holladay Stock Transfer, Inc. has in place an effective internal control structure, including the appropriate segregation of responsibilities and duties, over the transfer agent and registrar functions as of December 31, 2002 and no material inadequacies as defined by rule 17Ad-13(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1934 existed at such date.

My examination was made in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included a study and evaluation of the internal control structure over the transfer agent and registrar functions, using the objectives set forth in Rule 17Ad-13(a)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Those objectives are to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that securities and funds are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and the transfer agent activities are performed promptly and accurately. I believe that my examination provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

Because of the inherent limitations in any control structure, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal control structure over the transfer agent and registrar functions to the future periods are subject to the risk that the internal control structure may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In my opinion, management's assertions that, as of December 31, 2003 Holladay Stock Transfer, Inc. maintained an effective internal control structure, including the appropriate segregation of responsibilities and duties, over the transfer agent and registrar functions, the procedures manual was followed, and the no material inadequacies existed as defined by Rule 17Ad-13(a)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, is fairly stated, in all material respects, based upon the criteria established by said rule except for the following.

1. Procedure Manual Deficiencies
 - A No mention is made of notifying the DTC of Assumption of or Termination of Transfer Agent services., (Rule 17Ad-16).
 - B No mention is made of any procedures for locating lost securities holders, (Rule 17 Ad-17).

2. Five instances were found where the number listed in the computer as the next number for a stock certificate did not match with the next number available with the blank certificates. Upon further investigation and inquiry the various exception stock certificates were located and found to be certificates in process, rather than non-matching. These subsequent findings therefore, resolved this issue.

Management has reviewed these findings and is taking immediate steps to rectify the same.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors and management of Holladay Stock Transfer, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission and should not be used for any other purpose.
