CITIC Japan Fund Established

-- Targets Japanese companies expanding to China --

TOKYO, JAPAN (Thursday, May 6, 2004) – CITIC Capital Markets Holding Limited (“CITIC Capital”), Marubeni Corporation (“Marubeni”), Shinsei Bank, Limited (“Shinsei Bank”) and Sumitomo Trust & Banking (“Sumitomo Trust”) announced today the establishment of CITIC Japan Partners L.P., a JPY 20 billion private equity fund focused on assisting Japanese corporations accelerate their China growth strategy. The fund will invest in Japanese corporations and provide growth capital to those companies which have strong expansion potential in China, particularly in the following sectors: auto parts, electronics, industrial machinery and equipment, chemicals and pharmaceuticals.

According to Japan’s Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI), in 2003, Greater China accounted for almost 25% of Japan’s exports, becoming Japan’s largest export market for the first time ever. Japan’s exports to China continue to grow along with the robust economic development of China’s domestic economy, and the China market is one of the most interesting growth opportunities for Japanese companies.

Yichen Zhang, the CEO of CITIC Capital, the international investment banking and asset management arm of CITIC Group, said, “Having opened its first Tokyo office in 1983, CITIC has almost 25 years of experience in helping the world’s largest corporations successfully enter the China market. Our new Japan fund aims to use CITIC’s unique resources to help open up the China market in partnership with the management of middle market Japanese companies.”

CITIC Japan Partners recently successfully completed its initial fundraising, and is expected to reach its targeted funding amount by mid-2004. Anchor investors are Marubeni, Shinsei Bank and Sumitomo Trust.

Brian J. Doyle, the managing director of CITIC Capital’s private equity group said, “Our Japanese partners are well-established companies with outstanding networks in the Japanese business community. We are very excited to begin the process of reaching out to their clients to help them capitalize on China growth opportunities.”

About CITIC Capital Markets Holdings Limited (“CITIC Capital”):

Owned by China CITIC Group in Beijing, CITIC Pacific Limited in Hong Kong, and CITIC International Financial Holdings Limited, CITIC Capital provides financial services in investment banking, asset management and securities brokerage by leveraging its world-class financial expertise and the vast resources and network of the China CITIC Group.
