NQL Announces update on Status of Strategic Process

NISKU, AB, June 15 /CNW/ - NQL Drilling Tools Inc. (TSX - NQL.A) announces an update on the status of its strategic process.

As previously announced, NQL formed a special committee of the Board of Directors to consider various options available to the Company to enhance shareholder value. The special committee retained Simmons & Company International, a Houston based investment banking firm specializing in the energy industry, to assist in considering and evaluating strategic alternatives.

The Board of Directors has received offers, proposals or expressions of interest with respect to each of the Company's operating divisions. The Board of Directors has instructed Simmons & Company International to continue to work with the interested parties to explore one or more potential transactions. To date, NQL has not received any proposals that provide for the sale of the Company as a whole.

The Board of Directors is continuing to review and consider the alternatives available to the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will enter into any of the proposed transactions or that any such transaction will be completed. As appropriate, the Company will provide further updates on this process.

NQL Drilling Tools Inc. is an industry leader in providing downhole tools, technology and services used primarily in drilling applications in the oil and gas, environmental and utility industries on a worldwide basis. NQL trades on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol NQL.A.
