AMENDMENTS TO CONTRACTUAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR CEO - DAVID TURNER

We wish to advise of amendments to the terms of the service contract between Brambles Industries Limited and Brambles' Chief Executive, Mr David Turner.

Consistent with the proposed introduction of the 2004 Performance Share Plans, as outlined in the 2004 Notice of Meeting released today to the United Kingdom Listing Authority, and assuming approval of the Plans by shareholders, Mr Turner has agreed that subsequent equity awards made to him will be subject to the rules of the new Plans. Specifically, this means that Mr Turner will no longer be entitled to annual awards of options under the terms of the 2001 Executive Share Option Plan. He will also waive his rights in respect of future awards under the 2004 Performance Share Plan to have performance conditions retested at the fourth, fifth and sixth anniversaries of the award date.

In recognition of these changes, the Board has agreed that, if Mr Turner ceases employment, other than for cause, death, illness, injury, disability, redundancy or sale of employer outside the Brambles Group, the Board will exercise its discretion in respect of future awards to deem the reason for leaving to be retirement (for the purpose of the rules of the BIL Plan).
