Schedule "A"
Total Contribution and Price Per Unit

The Company expects that the investors in it will be the HGH Family LLC and four additional individuals. The four prospective investors will be paying an aggregate of $125,000 for a total of five units of membership interest, for a purchase price of $25,000 per unit. While HGH Family, LLC will be contributing $675,000 cash to the entity, each of the members of HGH Family, LLC as well as the other prospective investors in HGH Family LLC will be expected to execute personal guaranties for approximately $2,000,000 in borrowing and based on their special skills will be contributing sweat equity wherever appropriate. Thus, with the cash contribution of the members of HGH Family LLC, their assumption of contingent personal liability and their sweat equity, the total contribution by HGH Family, LLC will result in a net total contribution equal to that of the four individual prospective investors, or $25,000 per unit of membership interest.
